

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Mike Lewytskyj
DOCKET NO.: 22-32910.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 02-18-418-002-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Mike Lewytskyj, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $12,048
IMPR.: $29,671
TOTAL: $41,719

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 2,786 square feet of living area. The home is approximately 35 years old. Features include a full basement, central air conditioning, one fireplace, and a 2.5-car garage. The property has an 11,475 square foot site and is located in Hoffman Estates, Palatine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood. The comparables are improved with 2-story, class 2-78 dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 2,786 to 3,323 square feet of living area. The homes range in age from 34 to 39 years old. Each comparable has a full or partial basement, central air conditioning, one fireplace, and a 1.5-car or a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $22,500 to $25,500 or from $7.22 to $8.08 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the improvement assessment be reduced.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $41,719. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $29,671 or $10.65 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood. The comparables are improved with 2-story, class 2-78 dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 2,302 to 2,786 square feet of living area. The homes range in age from 34 to 39 years old. Each comparable has a full or partial basement, central air conditioning, and one fireplace. Three comparables each have a 3-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $30,006 to $37,722 or from $11.83 to $16.25 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested that the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted nine suggested equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables #1, #2, and #3 as well as board of review comparable #1, #2, and #3 which are less similar to the subject in dwelling size than the other comparables in this record.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables #4 and #5 as well as board of review comparable #4 which are overall most similar to the subject in design/class, age, and dwelling size with varying degrees of similarity in other features. Further, the appellant's comparable #5 and board of review comparable #4 are identical to the subject in dwelling size and basement finish. However, the board of review comparable #4 lacks a garage amenity which would necessitate an upward adjustment to make it make equivalent to the subject. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $22,500 to $32,950 or from $7.74 to $11.83 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $29,671 or $10.65 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. After considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which exists on the basis of the evidence in this record.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
