

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Enzo Venuti
DOCKET NO.: 22-33536.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 12-15-323-001-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Enzo Venuti, the appellant, by attorney Kyle Gordon Kamego, of Robert H. Rosenfeld & Associates, LLC, in Northbrook, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $6,098
IMPR.: $50,901
TOTAL: $56,999

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story multi-family apartment building of masonry exterior construction with 4,928 square feet of gross building area and which is approximately 50 years old. Features include a full basement, and 6 full bathrooms. The property has a 6,776 square foot site and is located in Schiller Park, Leyden Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject and either .8 or .9 of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-11 two-story buildings of masonry exterior construction that are each 59 years old. The buildings contain either 5,883 or 5,994 square feet of gross building area. Each comparable has a full basement, and six full bathrooms. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $51,853 to $54,460 or from $8.81 to $9.09 per square foot of gross building area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $43,908 or $8.91 per square foot of gross building area representing the “average” of the comparables presented according to the appellant.

The board of review submitted its “Board of Review Notes on Appeal” disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $56,999. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $50,901 or $10.33 per square foot of gross building area.

In response to the appellant’s evidence, the board of review noted that the appellant’s comparables are each 1,000 square feet larger than the subject. In contrast, the board of review has provided twelve identical comparables to the subject located in the same block or ¼ of a mile from the subject (comparables #11 and #12).

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information three grid analyses with data on twelve equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject. For ease of reference, the Property Tax Appeal Board has renumbered the second page of comparables as #5 through #8 and the third page of comparables as #9 through #12. The comparables consist of class 2-11 two-story buildings of masonry exterior construction which are 50 to 53 years old. The buildings contain 4,928 square feet of gross building area. Each comparable has a full basement and 6 full bathrooms. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $51,258 to $54,613 or from $10.40 to $11.08 per square foot of gross building area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject’s assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of sixteen equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has given reduced weight to the appellant’s comparables, due to the differences in location, age, and/or building size when compared to the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity consists of the board of review comparables, which are similar to the subject in location, design, bathroom count and some features while identical in building size. Adjustments to these comparables for minor differences in age are necessary to make the comparables more equivalent to the subject. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $51,258 to $54,613 or from $10.40 to $11.08 per square foot of gross building area. The subject has an improvement assessment of $50,901 or $10.33 per square foot of gross building area, which is below the range of the highly similar comparables presented by the board of review both in terms of overall improvement assessment and on a per-square-foot of building area basis.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables in the record for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.

Clerk of the Property Tax Appeal Board

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code provides in part:

"If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel after the deadline for filing complaints with the Board of Review or after adjournment of the session of the Board of Review at which assessments for the subsequent year or years of the same general assessment period, as provided in Sections 9-125 through 9-225, are being considered, the taxpayer may, within 30 days after the date of written notice of the Property Tax Appeal Board's decision, appeal the assessment for such subsequent year or years directly to the Property Tax Appeal Board."

In order to comply with the above provision, YOU MUST FILE A PETITION AND EVIDENCE WITH THE PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD WITHIN 30 DAYS OF THE DATE OF THE ENCLOSED DECISION IN ORDER TO APPEAL THE ASSESSMENT OF THE PROPERTY FOR THE SUBSEQUENT YEAR OR YEARS. A separate petition and evidence must be filed for each of the remaining years of the general assessment period.

Based upon the issuance of a lowered assessment by the Property Tax Appeal Board, the refund of paid property taxes is the responsibility of your County Treasurer. Please contact that office with any questions you may have regarding the refund of paid property taxes.
