

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Dorota Wojcik
DOCKET NO.: 22-33650.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 12-25-119-002-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Dorota Wojcik, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,886
IMPR.: $26,500
TOTAL: $31,386

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 1,531 square feet, multi-level masonry structure on a 3,619 square feet parcel in Elmwood Park, Leydon Township, Cook County comprises the subject property. The 94-year-old, class 2-03 property featured one bathroom, no air conditioning or fireplace, a two-car garage, and a full basement. The appellant's petition indicated that the property last sold in July 1998 for $147,000 and was appealing based on assessment equity.

Arguing the $26,500 subject improvement assessment is inequitable, the appellant contends the assessment should be lowered to $12.76 per improvement square foot to achieve uniformity with like properties. To this end, the appellant placed into evidence five class 2-03 properties within .83 miles of the subject with improvement assessments between $11.73 and $13.56 per living square foot. The appellant's suggested comparables featured one to two bathrooms, one or two fireplaces, and a full basement. These potential comparator improvements were between 92 to 96 years old and between 1,418 to 1,767 square feet in improvement size.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $26,501, or $17.31 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.”¹ In defense of the $31,386 total subject assessment, the county board of review selected four buildings on the subject’s block as equity comparables. The board of review’s preferred comparators all featured a two-car garage (except submission #4, which had none), one to two bathrooms, and a full basement. These properties were 94 years in building age; between 1,250 and 1,776 square feet in living area; and between $18.08 and $24.09 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment is the basis of a property tax appeal, the appellant must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should comprise assessment documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties with compelling proximity to, and a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not surmount this burden of proof.

Of the parties’ submissions, board of review comparable #1 and appellant comparables #2 and #5 were most similar to the subject property and therefore circumscribe the range of equitable subject improvements. Board of review comparable #1 featured less living space, but added a half bathroom relative to the subject. Appellant comparable #2 also featured less livable area, but partially compensated for it with two fireplaces. By contrast, appellant comparable #5 had an extra bathroom, more living space, and two fireplaces relative to the subject, which offset its lack of a garage. Given the evidence in this record, the range of equitable assessments for the subject runs from $11.95 to $20.36 per living square foot. Because the subject’s $17.31 per improvement square foot assessment lands inside this range, PTAB finds the appellant did not provide sufficiently clear and convincing evidence that the subject assessment was inequitable or that a reduction thereof is justified.

¹ The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) observes that in its “Notes on Appeal,” the county board of review referenced its 2023 decision from which the appellant appeals. PTAB accordingly adopts the total assessment value reflected in that decision, minor discrepancies in the “Notes on Appeal” notwithstanding.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
