

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Angelo Spyratos
DOCKET NO.: 22-34983.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 02-19-204-009-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Angelo Spyratos, the appellant, by attorney Dimitrios Trivizas, of Dimitrios P. Trivizas, Ltd., in Skokie, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $11,216
IMPR.: $59,766
TOTAL: $70,982

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 4,269 square feet of living area and which is approximately 66 years old. Features include a full basement, central air conditioning, two fireplaces, and a three-car garage. The property has a 44,867 square foot site and is located in Inverness, Palatine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-04 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject and from .2 of a mile to 1.4-miles from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-04 1-story, 1.5-story or 2-story dwellings of frame or frame and masonry exterior construction which range in age from 60 to 72 years old. The dwellings range in size from 3,341 to 3,627 square feet of living area. Features include a partial basement, central air conditioning, and two homes each have a fireplace. Two comparables have either a 2-car or a 2.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $39,279 to $48,789 or from $10.83 to $13.50 per square foot of living area.

Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $53,695 or $12.58 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $70,982. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $59,766 or $14.00 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject and same block or ¼ of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-04 1-story or 1.5-story dwellings of frame, masonry, or frame and masonry exterior construction which range in age from 43 to 56 years old. The dwellings range in size from 1,961 to 2,956 square feet of living area. The comparables have full or partial basements, and two homes have central air conditioning. Three comparables each a fireplace, and each comparable has a 2.5-car, 3-car or a 3.5-car garage. Comparables #1 and #4 each are reported to have "other improvements" which are not further identified in the submission. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $31,670 to $45,783 or from $15.49 to $18.90 per square foot of living area.

Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of seven suggested equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. Other than similarity in neighborhood code, classification, design and foundation type, none of the comparables presented by the parties are particularly similar to the subject property herein. The comparables range in age from 43 to 72 years old while the subject is 66 years old, indicating that adjustments are necessary to each of the comparables for differences in age. Four of the comparables necessitate upward adjustments for partial basements as compared to the subject's full basement. Two comparables necessitate upward adjustments for the lack of air conditioning, which is a feature of the subject. Each of the comparables necessitate upward adjustments for the lack of a fireplace and/or inferior fireplace count when compared to the subject. Six comparables necessitate adjustments for differences in garage capacity/amenity when compared to the subject. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $31,670 to $48,789 or from $10.83 to $18.90 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $59,766 or $14.00 per square foot of living area is above the range of the comparables in the record in terms of overall improvement assessment and within the range on a per-square-foot of living area basis which appears to be logical given that the subject is substantially larger than each of the comparables presented by the parties, which justifies a larger overall improvement assessment.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject to make the comparables more similar to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
