

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ralph Zia
DOCKET NO.: 22-35004.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-12-300-040-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ralph Zia, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,487
IMPR.: $24,773
TOTAL: $32,260

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a multi-level dwelling of frame and masonry exterior construction with 1,447 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 57 years old. Features of the home include a basement, 2½ bathrooms, central air conditioning and a 2-car garage. The property has a 7,130 square foot site and is located in Glenview, Maine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-34 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood and within 0.90 of a mile from the subject property. The comparables consist of class 2-34, multi-level dwellings of frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,251 to 1,626 square feet of living area. The dwelling are from 60 to 66 years old. The dwellings each have a basement, either 1, 1½ or 2½ bathrooms, and 1 or 2 fireplaces. Four comparables each have central air conditioning, and four comparables have either a 1-car, 1.5-car or a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $19,478 to $28,810 or from $15.57 to $17.75 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment to $24,773 or $17.12 per square foot of living area.

The appellant submitted a copy of the Cook County Board of Review final decision disclosing the subject has a total assessment of $37,367. The appellant reported that the subject has an improvement assessment of $29,880 or $20.65 per square foot of living area.¹

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal." In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood and within approximately ¼ of a mile from the subject property. The comparables consist of class 2-34, multi-level dwellings of frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,314 to 1,450 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 57 to 62 years old. The dwellings each have a basement, either 1½, 2 or 2½ bathrooms, and a 2-car garage. Two comparable have central air conditioning, and one comparable has a fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $15,802 to $17,400 or from $11.71 to $12.03 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The parties submitted nine equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables #1 and #3 as well as the board of review's comparables #1 and #3 which lack central air conditioning or a garage amenity, both of which are features of the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the parties' remaining comparables which are overall most similar to the subject in location, design, age, dwelling size and other features. These five comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $15,802 to $28,159 or from $12.00 to $17.75 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $29,880 or $20.65 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in the record. Based on this record and after considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant demonstrated with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment, commensurate with the appellant's request, is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
