

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ziker Pehlari
DOCKET NO.: 22-35307.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-14-403-058-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ziker Pehlari, the appellant(s), by attorney Dora Cornelio, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $6,925
IMPR.: $49,032
TOTAL: $55,957

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of an approximately seven-year-old two-story dwelling of masonry construction with 3,022 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a full finished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a two-car garage. The property has a 6,596 square foot site and is located in Niles, Maine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables. These comparables have the same neighborhood code as the appellant's property, but the appellant did not specify the proximity of these comparables to the appellant's property. These comparables are class 2-78 two-story residences, that are between 32 and 60 years old, have frame, masonry, or frame and masonry construction, have two bathrooms, full basements, zero to one fireplace, a two-car garage, contain between 2,092 and 3,392 square feet of living area, and contain improvement assessments between $13.39 and $20.11 per square foot. The appellant is requesting a total assessment of $48,054.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $66,156 (per the attached board of review decision letter). The subject property has an improvement assessment of $59,231 or $19.60 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables. These comparables have the same neighborhood code as the subject property and are on the same block or 0.25 miles away. The comparables are two-story residences, are between 15 and 19 years old, with masonry construction, have 2.5 to 3.5 bathrooms, full basements, have central air conditioning, zero to one fireplace, a two-car garage, contain between 2,727 and 3,301 square feet of living area, and have improvement assessments between $17.11 and $18.92 per square foot.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer asserts assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires that real estate taxes, "be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law." Ill. Const. art. IX, §4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation, however, and it is sufficient if the taxing authority achieves a reasonable degree of uniformity. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a conviction of a crime. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparables #2 and #3 and board of review comparables #1, #2, #3, and #4. As for comparables not found to be best evidence, appellant's comparables #1, #4, and #5 are notably smaller or larger than appellant's property and have frame or frame and masonry construction as opposed to masonry construction. The best comparables have improvement assessments that ranged from $13.53 to $18.92 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $19.60 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
