

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Matthew Bettes
DOCKET NO.: 22-35993.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-31-315-051-1003

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Matthew Bettes, the appellant(s), by attorney Jessica Hill-Magiera, Attorney at Law in Lake Zurich; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,864
IMPR.: $51,707
TOTAL: $54,571

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of an approximately 10-year-old condominium dwelling. Features of the home include a slab foundation, one bathroom, and a garage. The property has a 2,430 square foot site and is located in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five comparable sales. The comparables have the same neighborhood code as the subject property and are located 0.01 to 0.22 miles away. The comparables are nine- to 18-year-old class 2-99 condominium residences. The comparables were sold between May 2021 and September 2022 for sale prices between $307,500 and $521,000. The appellant did not disclose the size of the living space, the sale prices per square foot, or the exterior construction of these units. The appellant is requesting a total assessment of $33,250.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted a condominium analysis regarding recent sales in the four-unit building the subject property is located in. Per the analysis, two condominiums have had sales between November 2020 and June 2023 that totaled $1,053,500. The board of review stated that those sold units have a 50.00% ownership interest in the building and the total assessed value of all units would then be $2,107,000. The board of review then stated that the subject unit has a 25.9% ownership interest, which translates to a value of $545,713. The board of review is requesting that the current assessment be confirmed based on this analysis.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the condominium analysis submitted by the board of review. The appellant submitted insufficient information regarding comparables in its petition for those comparables to be considered. The appellant submitted additional information during rebuttal, but submitting comparable information during rebuttal is not allowed per the Property Tax Appeal Board's rules. The board of review's condominium analysis was persuasive in that it reflected a large, recent percentage of ownership of the building that had been sold. Based on this evidence the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
