

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Jacob Pettengill
DOCKET NO.: 22-37243.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-17-103-031-1008

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Jacob Pettengill, the appellant(s), by attorney Mary Kate Gorman, Attorney at Law in Tinley Park; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,089
IMPR.: $32,164
TOTAL: $39,253

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a condominium unit within a 107-year-old, multi-story, masonry, eight-unit, condominium building located in Chicago, Lake View Township, Cook County and is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant included sales information on three units located within buildings near the subject's building. These units sold from February 2021 to January 2022 for prices ranging from $330,000 to $355,000. The petition discloses the subject is an owner-occupied residence.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the subject's assessment of $39,253. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $392,530 when using the level of assessment for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted the sale of six units located within the subject building that sold from April 2021 to June 2022 for a total value of $2,145,000. This value was divided by the percentage of ownership of the units sold of 76.62% to arrive at a value for the building of $2,799,530. This value is multiplied by the subject's percentage of ownership of 14.29% to arrive at a value for the subject of $400,053.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the sales submitted by the board of review. These condominium units are all located within the subject's building. These units sold for prices ranging from $247,500 to $415,000 or for a total of $2,799,530. The appellant's assessment reflects a market value of $392,530 which is within the range of these comparables. In addition, if looking at the assessment based on the percentage of ownership. The Board finds the board of review correctly calculated the subject's market value and the current assessment supports this calculation. Therefore, the Board finds the appellant did not show by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject property was overvalued, and a reduction is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
