

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Katherine Karlis
DOCKET NO.: 22-37266.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-07-312-028-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Katherine Karlis, the appellant(s), by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $5,844
IMPR.: $27,155
TOTAL: $32,999

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is a 66-year-old, multi-level, single-family residence of frame and masonry construction, containing approximately 1,240 square feet of living area. The property is situated on a 6,875-square-foot site located in Des Plaines, within Maine Township, Cook County, Illinois. Improvements include a partial basement featuring a finished recreation room, central air conditioning, and a one-and-one-half-car garage. Pursuant to the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance, the subject property is classified as a Class 2-34 residential property.

The appellant contends that the subject property is overvalued. In support of this position, the appellant submitted data for four comparable sales, each exhibiting varying degrees of similarity to the subject property. According to the appellant, all selected comparable properties are located within the same neighborhood code and are situated approximately 0.10 to 0.30 miles from the subject.

The comparable properties are described as Class 2-34 single-family split level residences of frame and masonry construction, containing between 1,040 and 1,327 square feet of living area. These properties sold between 2020 and 2022 for prices ranging from $319,500 to $265,000, or approximately $229.09 to $255.40 per square foot of living area, including land.

Based on this evidence, the appellant requests that the subject property's assessment be reduced to $30,818.

The Board of Review submitted its Notes on Appeal indicating an assessed value of $33,000 for the subject property. However, the appellant provided a copy of the 2022 Board of Review assessment letter for the subject property, which established the final assessed value at $32,999. This final assessment reflects a market value of $329,990, or $266.12 per square foot of living area, including land, when applying the 10 percent level of assessment applicable to Class 2 property.

In support of the correctness of the assessment, the Board of Review submitted information on four comparable sales that exhibit varying degrees of similarity to the subject. The comparable properties relied upon by the Board are located within the same neighborhood code and within a one-quarter-mile radius of the subject. The comparable dwellings are described as multi-level, Class 2-34 single-family residences, ranging in age from 61 to 66 years and containing between 1,211 and 1,308 square feet of living area. These properties sold between 2021 and 2022 for prices ranging from $271.41 to $306.87 per square foot of living area, including land.

The Board of Review contends that these comparable properties demonstrate that the subject's current assessment is equitable and falls within the range established by similarly situated properties. Accordingly, the Board of Review requests confirmation of the subject's existing assessment.

Conclusions of Law

The taxpayer asserts that the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal, the taxpayer must prove the value of the property by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.63(e); Winnebago County Bd. of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Bd., 313 Ill. App. 3d 1038, 1043 (2d Dist. 2000). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment on this basis is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of eight Class 2-34 comparable sales for the Board's consideration. The Board has reviewed all comparable properties of record and accords the greatest weight to those most proximate to the subject property and most similar in size, age, and relevant physical characteristics.

The Board finds that the most persuasive evidence of the subject property's market value consists of the appellant's Comparable Nos. 2 through 4, together with Comparable Nos. 2 and 3 submitted by the Board of Review. These properties, like the subject, are multi-level, Class 2-06 single-family masonry dwellings featuring partial basements, garages, and living areas similar in size to the subject. All are located within the same neighborhood code and in close proximity to the subject property.

These comparable properties sold between May 2020 and October 2021 at prices ranging from $229.09 to $297.28 per square foot of living area, including land. The subject's current assessment reflects an implied market value of $329,990, or $266.12 per square foot, which falls within the range established by the most comparable properties.

Based on the totality of the evidence contained in the record, and after considering appropriate adjustments for differences between the subject property and the most comparable sales, the Board concludes that the appellant has not established, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the subject property is overvalued. Accordingly, no reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
