

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Wieslaw Tomczyk
DOCKET NO.: 22-37777.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 02-18-318-018-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Wieslaw Tomczyk, the appellant, by attorney Eric Feldman, of Eric Feldman & Assoc. P.C., in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $8,034
IMPR.: $34,133
TOTAL: $42,167

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 2,746 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 35 years old. Features of the home include a partial unfinished basement, one fireplace, and a two-car garage. The property has a 7,652 square foot site and is located in Hoffman Estates, Palatine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code and from .14 to .53 of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-78 two-story dwellings of frame exterior construction. The comparables range in age from 33 to 38 years old. The dwellings range in size from 2,617 to 2,912 square feet of living area. Each comparable has a full or partial unfinished basement, central air conditioning, one fireplace, and from a two-car to a three-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $26,563 to $31,203 or from $10.03 to $11.20 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $28,860 or $10.51 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal." The appellant submitted a copy of the final decision disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $42,167. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $34,133 or $12.43 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code and the same [tax] block as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-78 two-story dwellings of frame exterior construction which are each 36 years old. The dwellings contain either 2,657 or 2,687 square feet of living area and have partial unfinished basements, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and either a one-car or a two-car garage. Comparable #1 is described as having "other improvements" which are not further identified on the record. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $34,958 to $38,958 or from $13.16 to $14.66 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of nine suggested equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board which are located in the same neighborhood code and have the same classification as the subject. Each of the comparables necessitate downward adjustments to account for central air conditioning, which is not a feature of the subject dwelling. Additional adjustments to the comparables are necessary for differences in basement size and/or garage capacity when compared to the subject and in order to make the comparables more equivalent to the subject. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $26,563 to $38,958 or from $10.03 to $14.66 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $34,133 or $12.43 per square foot of living area is within the range of the best comparables both in terms of overall improvement assessment and on a per-square-foot of living area basis.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
