

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Fred Edwards
DOCKET NO.: 22-37811.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 02-19-432-005-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Fred Edwards, the appellant, by attorney Eric Feldman, of Eric Feldman & Assoc. P.C., in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,641
IMPR.: $28,268
TOTAL: $35,909

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 2,193 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 45 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, 2½ bathrooms, central air conditioning, and a two-car garage. The property has an 8,490 square foot site and is located in Hoffman Estates, Palatine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code and from .47 to .63 of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-78 two-story dwellings of frame exterior construction. The comparables range in age from 34 to 53 years old. The dwellings range in size from 2,198 to 2,348 square feet of living area. Each comparable has a full unfinished basement, 2 or 2½ bathrooms, central air conditioning, and a two-car garage. Three dwellings each have a fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $23,000 to $26,603 or from $9.80 to $11.33 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $23,202 or $10.58 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal." The appellant submitted a copy of the final decision disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $35,909. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $28,268 or $12.89 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code and the same [tax] block or ¼ of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of either class 2-07 or class 2-78 two-story dwellings of frame exterior construction which are 43 or 45 years old. The dwellings range in size from 1,887 to 2,192 square feet of living area and have full or partial basements, one of which has finished area. The homes have 1½ or 2½ bathrooms, central air conditioning, and a two-car garage. Three comparables each have a fireplace and comparable #4 has "other improvements" that are not further identified on the record. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $25,380 to $30,628 or from $13.45 to $14.32 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of eight suggested equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board which are located in the same neighborhood code. The Board has given reduced weight to appellant's comparables #1 and #2, which are each 10 years or more newer than the subject dwelling. The Board has given reduced weight to board of review comparables #2, which differs in classification and has a finished basement when compared to the subject. The Board has given reduced weight to board of review comparable #4, which has "other improvements," not a feature of the subject property.

The Board finds the best equity comparables in the record are appellant's comparables #3 and #4 along with the board of review comparables #1 and #3, which range in age from 43 to 53 years old. These homes are also similar to the subject in dwelling size ranging from 2,139 to 2,347 square feet of living area. Three of these comparables necessitate downward adjustments to account for fireplaces, which is not a feature of the subject dwelling. The best board of review comparables have smaller basement sizes than the subject suggesting additional adjustments. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $23,000 to $30,628 or from $9.80 to $14.32 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $28,269 or $12.89 per square foot of living area is within the range of the best comparables both in terms of overall improvement assessment and on a per-square-foot of living area basis.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
