

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Irena Savic
DOCKET NO.: 22-38508.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-27-411-019-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Irena Savic, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $8,580
IMPR.: $30,823
TOTAL: $39,403

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 1,427 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 69 years old. Features include a full basement, central air conditioning, and a 1-car garage. The property has a 6,600 square foot site and is located in Park Ridge, Maine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables located within the same assessment neighborhood as the subject and from 0.41 to 0.91 of a mile from the subject property. The comparables are improved with 1-story, class 2-03 dwellings of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,274 to 1,397 square feet of living area. The homes range in age from 54 to 68 years old. Four comparables each have a full basement and one comparable has a slab foundation. Two comparables each have central air conditioning. Each comparable has one or two fireplaces. Three comparables each have a 1-car or a 1.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $18,600 to $22,082 or from $14.60 to $16.02 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $39,403. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $30,823 or $21.60 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables located within the same assessment neighborhood as the subject and either on the same block and street as the subject or $\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile from the subject property. The comparables are improved with 1-story, class 2-03 dwellings of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,206 to 1,285 square feet of living area. The homes range in age from 67 to 69 years old. Each comparable has a full basement and a 1-car or a 2-car garage. Two comparables each have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from \$29,195 to \$31,420 or from \$23.93 to \$25.22 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The record contains eight suggested equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables and board of review comparable #1 due to differences in age, foundation type, lack of central air conditioning, and/or lack of garage amenity, relative to the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be board of review comparables #2 and #3 which are located most proximate to the subject and are similar to the subject in design/class, age, dwelling size, and other features. The best comparables have improvement assessments of $29,195 and $31,420 or $23.93 and $24.45 per square foot of living area, respectively. The subject's improvement assessment of $30,823 or $21.60 per square foot of living area is bracketed by the two best comparables in this record on an overall improvement assessment basis and below them on a per square foot basis. After considering adjustments to the two best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
