

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Susan McMahon
DOCKET NO.: 22-38574.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-35-114-008-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Susan McMahon, the appellant, by attorney Dora Cornelio, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd., in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $11,253
IMPR.: $52,750
TOTAL: $64,003

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame and masonry exterior construction with 2,526 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 18 years old. Features of the home include a full basement, with finished area, 3½ bathrooms, a fireplace, and a two-car garage. The property has a 3,750 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of the inequity argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables along with property characteristics sheets which were used to update/correct bathroom count information. The comparables are located in the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-78 two-story dwellings of frame exterior construction and which are 4 to 18 years old. The comparables range in size from 2,382 to 3,135 square feet of living area. Four comparables have full basements with finished area and comparable #2 has a concrete slab foundation. Each comparable has central air conditioning and 2½ or 3½ bathrooms. Two homes each have a fireplace and four comparables each have a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $40,750 to $58,289 or from $16.59 to $18.59 per square foot of living area.

Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $44,129 or $17.47 per square foot of living area reflecting the median of the comparables presented.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal." The appellant submitted a copy of the final decision disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $64,003. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $52,750 or $20.88 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code and the subarea or ¼ of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-78 two-story dwellings of frame or frame and masonry exterior construction that are 2 to 10 years old. The homes range in size from 2,335 to 2,542 per square feet of living area. Features include full basements with finished area, central air conditioning, 2½ or 3½ bathrooms, and a two-car garage. Comparable #4 also has a fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $58,982 to $73,720 or from $23.90 to $29.42 per square foot of living area.

Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of nine equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has given reduced weight to the appellant's comparables #2, #4 and #5, due to differing dwelling sizes, age and/or foundation type when compared to the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity in the record to be appellant's comparables #1 and #3 along with the board of review comparables, as these homes have the same classification, neighborhood code, story height, somewhat similar dwelling sizes, and foundation types to the subject. In addition, these comparables, while newer, are each close in age to the subject dwelling. The homes each necessitate downward adjustments due to the air conditioning feature, when compared to the subject. Five of the best comparables necessitate adjustments for the lack of a fireplace amenity when compared to the subject. These best comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $40,750 to $73,720 or from $16.59 to $29.42 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $52,750 or $23.90 per square foot of living area is within the range of the best comparables in this record both in terms of overall improvement assessment and on a per-square-foot of living area basis.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables in the record for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
