

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: John Bubaris
DOCKET NO.: 22-39292.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-21-305-013-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are John Bubaris, the appellant(s), by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $12,720
IMPR.: $24,280
TOTAL: $37,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is a one-and-one-half-story single-family dwelling of frame construction containing 1,629 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 102 years old and includes a full unfinished basement, one full bathroom, and a two-car garage. Appellant disclosed that the property is owner-occupied. The site comprises 15,900 square feet located in Des Plaines, within Maine Township in Cook County. The property is classified as Class 2-03 under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends that the subject property is overvalued. In support of this claim, the appellant submitted four comparable sales located between 0.40 and 1.70 miles from the subject, each exhibiting varying degrees of similarity. The one-and-one-half-story dwellings are of either frame or frame-and-masonry construction, range in age from 93 to 109 years, and contain between 1,602 and 1,731 square feet of living area. These properties sold between 2019 and 2022 for prices ranging from $144.44 to $202.20 per square foot of living area, including land. Based on this evidence, the appellant requests that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $30,865.

The Board of Review, through its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal," reported a total assessment of $37,000 for the subject property. This assessment reflects an implied market value of $370,000, or $227.13 per square foot of living area, including land, when applying the statutory 10 percent level of assessment for Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of the assessed value, the Board of Review submitted four comparable sales demonstrating varying degrees of similarity to the subject property. All comparable properties are located within the same neighborhood code and within the same subarea, with one property situated approximately one-quarter mile from the subject and two located within one block. The comparable dwellings are one-story masonry Class 2-03 structures with amenities like those of the subject, ranging in age from 54 to 98 years and containing between 1,133 and 1,709 square feet of living area. These properties sold between 2019 and 2022 for prices ranging from $242.72 to $277.21 per square foot of living area, including land.

Based on the evidence submitted, the Board of Review asserts that the subject property's current assessment is equitable and falls within the range established by comparable properties. Accordingly, the Board requests confirmation of the subject's existing assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends that the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of an appeal, the value of the property must be established by a preponderance of the evidence. See 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.63(e). Acceptable evidence of market value may include an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale of the subject, comparable sales, or construction costs. See 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.65(c). After reviewing the record, the Board finds that the appellant has not met this burden of proof; therefore, a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of eight Class 2-03 comparable sales with varying degrees of similarity to the subject. The Board has evaluated all comparable properties of record and assigns the greatest weight to those most proximate to the subject and most similar in age, size, and relevant physical characteristics.

The Board finds that the most persuasive evidence of the subject property's market value consists of the appellant's Comparable Nos. 1, 3, and 4, along with Comparable Nos. 2 and 3 submitted by the Board of Review. These comparable properties, like the subject, are Class 2-03 single-family masonry dwellings with basements, garages, and similarly sized living areas. All are located in relatively close proximity to the subject property.

These comparable properties sold between 2019 and 2020 at prices ranging from $174.16 to $251.55 per square foot of living area, including land. The subject's current assessment reflects an implied market value of $370,000, or $227.13 per square foot, a figure that falls within the range established by the most comparable properties.

Based on the totality of the evidence in the record, and after considering appropriate adjustments for differences between the subject property and the most comparable sales, the Board concludes that the appellant has not demonstrated, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the subject property is overvalued. Accordingly, no reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
