

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Monika Urbaniak
DOCKET NO.: 22-39790.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-34-400-027-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Monika Urbaniak, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$33,323
IMPR.:	$36,543
TOTAL:	$69,866

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1-story dwelling of frame and masonry exterior construction with 2,559 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 65 years old. Features of the home include a basement with finished area,¹ 2 fireplaces and a 2-car garage. The property has a 19,602 square foot site and is located in Park Ridge, Maine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-04 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five comparables located within the same assessment neighborhood as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-04, 1-story or 1.5-story dwellings of frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 2,429 to 2,885 square feet of living area. The homes are 64 to 76 years old. Three comparables each have a slab or a crawl space foundation. Two comparables each have a basement, but the appellant did not disclose the basements have finished area, if any. Two comparables each have central air conditioning, and each comparable has 1 or 2 fireplaces and either a 1.5-car or a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $31,000 to $44,460 or from $12.76 to $16.50 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal." The appellant submitted a copy of the Cook County Board of Review final decision disclosing the total assessment for the subject property of $74,902. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $41,579 or $16.25 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four comparables located within the same assessment neighborhood as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-04, 1-story or 1.5-story dwellings of masonry or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,962 to 2,373 square feet of living area. The homes are 48 to 85 years old. Each comparable has a basement with two having finished area, 1 or 2 fireplaces and either a 1.5-car or a 2-car garage. Three comparables each have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $43,460 to $51,460 or from $19.61 to $22.15 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested that the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The parties submitted nine comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables #1, #3 and #5 as well as the board of review's comparables due to significant differences in their design, age, dwelling size and/or foundation type when compared to the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables #2 and #4. These two comparables are relatively similar to the subject in location, design, age, dwelling size, and foundation type, but have varying degrees to the subject in other features. These two comparables have improvement assessments of $34,000 and $43,027 or $13.08 and $14.91 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $41,579 or $16.25 per square foot of living area falls above the two best comparables in the record. Based on this record, the Board finds the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment commensurate with the appellant's request is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
