

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Gregory Ozog
DOCKET NO.: 22-40205.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-28-118-006-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Gregory Ozog, the appellant, by attorney Brian S. Maher, of Weis, DuBrock, Doody & Maher, in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $78,800
IMPR.: $116,353
TOTAL: $195,153

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a three-story multi-family building of masonry exterior construction with 6,153 square feet of gross building area and which is approximately 118 years old. Features include a full unfinished basement and 3 bathrooms. The property has a 7,880 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Lake View Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-11 buildings of masonry exterior construction that are 102 or 110 years old. The buildings range in size from 6,922 to 6,999 square feet of gross building area. Features include 4 or 6 bathrooms where comparable #2 also has 4 half-baths. Each comparable has a full basement and comparable #3 has central air conditioning and five fireplaces. Two comparables have 1-car and 3.5-car garages, respectively. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $116,380 to $127,500 or from $16.63 to $18.42 per square foot of gross building area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $109,585 or $17.81 per square foot of gross building area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $195,153. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $116,353 or $18.91 per square foot of gross building area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables which are located in the same neighborhood code and either the same block or within $\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-11 three-story buildings of masonry exterior construction that range in age from 105 to 129 years old. The buildings range in size from 4,864 to 6,259 square feet of gross building area. Each comparable has a full basement, one of which is finished with an apartment, and 4 or 6 bathrooms where one comparable has 3 half-baths. Comparable #2 has central air conditioning and two fireplaces. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from \$97,484 to \$150,010 or from \$19.54 to \$23.97 per square foot of gross building area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of six equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has given reduced weight to the board of review comparable #3, due to a substantial difference in dwelling size of approximately 21% smaller when compared to the subject.

The Board finds the remaining comparables on this limited record are the best comparables which are the appellant's comparables along with board of review comparables #1 and #2, which are each similar to the subject building in classification, story height, and some features. Two of these five comparables need downward adjustments for central air conditioning and/or fireplaces which are not features of the subject. Four of the five comparables are newer than the subject in age and necessitate adjustments for this difference. Each of these comparables have more bathrooms than the subject and indicate downward adjustments would be needed for their superior bathroom counts. Likewise, two of the appellant's comparables have garages which is not a feature of the subject and suggests adjustments are necessary for these differences as well.

These five best comparables in the record have improvement assessments ranging from $116,380 to $150,010 or from $16.63 to $23.97 per square foot of gross building area. The subject's improvement assessment of $116,353 or $18.91 per square foot of gross building area falls below the range of the best comparables in this record in terms of overall improvement assessment but is within the range on a per-square-foot of gross building area basis.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables in the record for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
