

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Yong IL Lee
DOCKET NO.: 22-41437.001-C-1
PARCEL NO.: 02-23-206-001-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Yong IL Lee, the appellant; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $28,125
IMPR.: $68,125
TOTAL: $96,250

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 66-year-old, one-story commercial building with 5,925 square feet of building area. The property has a 7,500 square foot site and is located in Palatine Township, Cook County. The property is a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $385,000 as of January 1, 2022.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $111,093. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $444,372 when applying the 2022 level of assessments for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10%. The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of the subject's assessment.

At hearing, the appellant argued that the subject's assessment should be lowered to $49,176 for a market value of $196,704 based on vacancy. The board of review argued that the appellant did not provide support for a reduction of market value lower than the subject's 2022 appraisal.

After the hearing, the appellant sent an email to the board of review and the administrative law judge. This email was not reviewed as the hearing was over and any evidence or argument was given no weight.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the appraisal submitted by the appellant. The Board finds that the appellant failed to provide any evidence to support his hearing request of a market value lower than the subject's 2022 appraisal. The mere assertion that vacancies in a property exist, does not constitute proof that the assessment is incorrect or that the fair market value of a property is negatively impacted. There was no showing that the subject's market value was impacted by its vacancy. The subject's assessment reflects a market value above the best evidence of market value in the record. The Board finds the subject property had a market value of $385,000 as of the assessment date at issue. Since market value has been established the 2022 level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10% shall apply. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(c)(2)).

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
