

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Joel Monarch
DOCKET NO.: 22-41670.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-26-412-011-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Joel Monarch, the appellant(s), by attorney Joel R. Monarch, Attorney at Law in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $13,905
IMPR.: $28,420
TOTAL: $42,325

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160), challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1,152 square foot building of frame construction on a 3,973 square foot lot in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The 133-year-old home, a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance, featured two bathrooms and a full basement. The appellant selected assessment equity as the basis of the appeal.

The appellant contends that the assessed property is unequitably assessed. To show nonuniformity, the appellant proposed four class 2-03 properties within four blocks of the subject with improvement assessments between $20.25 and $21.54 per living square foot. These potential comparators varied from 115 to 125 years in building age and from 1,064 to 1,350 square feet in improvement size.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $28,420, or $24.67 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $42,326 total subject assessment, the county board of review nominated four buildings within ¼ mile to the subject’s property. The board of review’s preferred comparators all featured a full or slab basement. These properties were between 122 and 128 years in building age; between 1,046 and 1,359 square feet in living area; and between $28.90 and $35.60 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When the ground for appeal is unequal treatment in the assessment, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment should consist of assessment documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties with compelling proximity to, and lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b).

The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant fell short of satisfying this burden of proof. As the properties in evidence nearest and most similar to the subject improvement, board of review comparables #1, #2, #3, #4, and the appellants comparables #1, #2, #3, and #4 establish the range of equitable assessments for the subject improvement. As such, based on these comparators, the subject improvement would be equitably assessed from $20.25 to $35.60 per living square foot. Because the subject assessment of $24.67 per improvement square foot falls within this range, PTAB concludes the appellant did not demonstrate inequitable assessment by clear and convincing evidence, and a reduction commensurate with the appellant’s request is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
