

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Angela Beckman
DOCKET NO.: 22-42896.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-13-325-025-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Angela Beckman, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $18,750
IMPR.: $34,250
TOTAL: $53,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 4,200 square feet, two-story building of frame construction atop a 3,750 square feet parcel in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County comprises the subject property. The 115-year-old, class 2-11 property featured three bathrooms, a 2.5-car garage, and a full basement. The appellant indicated that the property last sold in September 2017 for $315,000 and was appealing based on assessment equity.

Challenging the $34,250 subject improvement assessment for inequity, the appellant contends the assessment should be lowered to $6.10 per improvement square foot to achieve uniformity with like properties. To this end, the appellant placed into evidence five class 2-11 properties within .86 miles of the subject with improvement assessments between $5.52 and $6.93 per living square foot. The appellant's suggested comparables featured two fireplaces, three to four bathrooms, and a full or crawl-space basement. These potential comparators varied from 110 to 126 years in building age and from 3,399 to 4,508 square feet in improvement size.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $34,250, or $8.15 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $53,000 total subject assessment, the county board of review selected four buildings within a quarter mile of the subject as equity comparables. The board of review’s preferred comparators all featured a full basement, three or six bathrooms, and no air conditioning or fireplace. These properties were also between 95 and 108 years in building age; between 3,485 and 4,760 square feet in living area; and between $8.97 and $12.21 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment is the basis of a property tax appeal, the appellant must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should comprise documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties with compelling proximity to, and a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not surmount this burden of proof.

Of the parties’ submissions, board of review comparables #3 and #4 and appellant comparable #3 most closely matched the subject’s attributes and therefore constitute the best evidence of assessment equity. Each of these comparables gave up some of the subject improvement’s living space, which appellant comparable #3 mitigated with an extra full bathroom and two fireplaces. By contrast, both board of review comparables lacked the subject’s garage, though they were closer to the subject property. Given the evidence in this record, the range of equitable assessments for the subject runs from $5.84 to $12.21 per living square foot. Because the subject’s $8.15 per improvement square foot assessment lands inside this range, PTAB finds the appellant did not provide sufficiently clear and convincing evidence that the subject assessment was inequitable or that a reduction thereof is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
