

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ancy Thomas
DOCKET NO.: 22-42939.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-18-121-011-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Ancy Thomas, the appellant, by attorney Jeremy Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld & Associates, LLC in Northbrook; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $8,369
IMPR.: $65,630
TOTAL: $73,999

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 3,921 square feet, two-story masonry building on a 6,438 square feet parcel in Morton Grove, Niles Township, Cook County comprises the subject property. The 17-year-old, class 2-08 residence under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance featured 3.5 bathrooms, one fireplace, air conditioning, an attached two-car garage, and a full basement.

The appellant pleads assessment inequity and requests the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) reduce the assessment to $15.14 per improvement square foot instead. To demonstrate nonuniform assessment, the appellant placed into evidence four class 2-08 properties within 1.1 miles of the subject as comparators for assessment equity. These suggested comparables included 3.5 to 4.5 bathrooms, air conditioning, and a two- or 2.5-car garage. The appellant's selections spanned 16 to 19 years in building age; 4,211 to 4,624 square feet in improvement area; and $14.90 to $15.57 per square foot in improvement assessment.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $65,630, or $16.74 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.”¹ In defense of the $73,999 total subject assessment, the county board of review proposed four two-story masonry improvements within a quarter mile of the subject as evidence of equitable assessment. The county board of review’s preferred comparators included air conditioning, a full basement, and a two-car garage. These nearby properties were 15 or 16 years in building age; 3,847 to 4,241 in improvement area; and $16.91 to $17.75 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When the ground for appeal is unequal treatment in the assessment, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment should consist of assessment documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties of compelling proximity to, and with a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant fell short of satisfying this burden of proof.

As the properties most proximal and similar to the subject, board of review comparables #1, #2, and #4 provide the best evidence of assessment equity for the subject. Board of review comparables #1 and #2 each contained slightly less living area than the subject but otherwise matched the subject’s amenities. Board of review comparable #4, on the other hand, featured more living square footage, bathrooms, and fireplaces relative to the subject, placing it at the high end of the range of equitable subject assessments, which runs from $16.91 to $17.12 per living square foot. Because the subject’s $16.74 per improvement square foot assessment is lower than those of the comparators, PTAB finds the appellant did not provide sufficiently clear and convincing evidence that the subject assessment was inequitable or that a reduction thereof is justified.

¹ PTAB observes that in its “Notes on Appeal,” the county board of review referenced the 2023 decision from which the appellant petitions. PTAB accordingly adopts the total assessment value reflected in that decision, minor discrepancies in the “Notes on Appeal” notwithstanding.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
