

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Angela Beckman
DOCKET NO.: 22-42956.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-26-212-036-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Angela Beckman, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $10,766
IMPR.: $60,700
TOTAL: $71,466

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1,960 square feet, two-story frame structure on a 3,075 square feet lot in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The seven-year-old, class 2-07 residence under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance included 3.5 bathrooms, air conditioning, a full basement, and a two-car garage. The subject last sold in February 2016 for $680,000.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal and requests the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) lower the assessment to $25.21 per improvement square foot. To show that the subject assessment is not uniform, the appellant proposed five class 2-07 properties within .74 miles of the subject as equity comparables. These suggested comparators had 2.5 to 3.5 bathrooms, air conditioning, one fireplace, and a full basement. The appellant's selections were 11 or 20 years in improvement age and further ranged between 1,742 and 1,946 in living square footage; and $22.68 and $27.06 per improvement square foot in assessment.

The board of review responded that the subject improvement was fairly assessed at $60,701, or $30.97 per living square foot in its “Notes on Appeal.”<sup>1</sup> In defense of the $71,466 total subject assessment, the county board of review put forth three frame buildings within a quarter mile of the subject as assessment benchmarks. The board of review’s preferred comparables all featured 2.5 or 3.5 bathrooms, a two-car garage, and air conditioning. These improvements were two to seven years old; 1,808 to 1,976 square feet in area; and $31.82 to $33.77 per living square foot in assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation, however; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When a property tax appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment, appellants must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties of compelling proximity to, and with a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not satisfy this burden of proof.

In this record, board of review comparables #1 and #3 and appellant comparables #3 and #5 comprise the best evidence of assessment equity in this record. Board of review comparables #1 and #3 both approximated the subject’s living area, though comparator #1 lacked the subject’s fireplace and comparator #3 lacked one of the subject’s full bathrooms. Appellant comparables #3 and #5 likewise differed slightly from the subject’s living area but otherwise resembled the subject in material respects. Given these comparators, the subject would be equitably assessed anywhere between $26.00 and $32.91 per improvement square foot. Because the subject’s $30.97 per improvement square foot assessment lands inside this range, PTAB finds the appellant did not produce the requisite evidence to justify a reduction in the subject assessment.

<sup>1</sup> PTAB observes that in its “Notes on Appeal,” the county board of review referenced the 2023 decision from which the appellant petitions. PTAB accordingly adopts the total assessment value reflected in that decision, minor discrepancies in the “Notes on Appeal” notwithstanding.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
