

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Thao Nguyen
DOCKET NO.: 22-43531.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-07-220-025-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Thao Nguyen, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$7,440
IMPR.:	$21,060
TOTAL:	$28,500

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 1,558 square feet, multi-level masonry structure on a 3,720 square feet parcel in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County comprises the subject property. The 68-year-old, class 2-03 residence featured 2.5 bathrooms, a two-car garage, and a full basement. The appellant indicated that the property last sold in September 2020 for $285,000 and was basing the appeal on assessment equity.

Contesting the equity of the $21,060 subject improvement assessment, the appellant contends the assessment should be lowered to $9.40 per improvement square foot. To show nonuniform assessment, the appellant placed into evidence five class 2-03 properties within .83 miles of the subject with improvement assessments between $6.71 and $11.54 per living square foot. The appellant's suggested comparables featured one or two fireplaces, one to two bathrooms, and a crawl-space or full basement. These potential comparators varied from 66 to 79 years in building age and from 1,388 to 1,755 square feet in improvement size.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $21,060, or $13.52 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $28,500 total subject assessment, the county board of review nominated four buildings on the subject’s block as equity comparables. The board of review’s preferred comparators all featured a full basement, a one- or two-car garage, and one to two bathrooms. These properties were also between 67 and 70 years in building age; between 1,425 and 1,547 square feet in living area; and between $14.87 and $17.24 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When the ground for appeal is unequal treatment in the assessment, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment should consist of assessment documentation for the year in question of at least three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity, and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant fell short of satisfying this burden of proof.

As the properties nearest and most similar to the subject improvement, board of review comparables #1, #2, and #4 constitute the best evidence of assessment equity in this record. Board of review comparables #1 and #2 compensated for their smaller improvements and lesser bathroom utility relative to the subject with air conditioning. Board of review comparable #4, on the other hand, was inferior to the subject in that it lacked some of the subject improvement’s living and garage space. Based on these comparators, the subject improvement would be equitably assessed from $14.87 to $16.52 per living square foot. Because the $13.52 per square foot assessment for the subject improvement falls below this range, PTAB concludes the appellant did not demonstrate assessment inequity by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction commensurate with the appellant’s request is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
