

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Leslie Montanez
DOCKET NO.: 22-43589.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-27-409-012-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Leslie Montanez, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $9,375
IMPR.: $28,628
TOTAL: $38,003

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2,688 square feet masonry building on a 3,750 square feet parcel in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The 104-year-old structure, a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance, contained three bathrooms, a full basement, two fireplaces, and a two-car garage. In the petition before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB), the appellant indicated the subject last sold in June 2014 for $275,000 and selected assessment equity as the basis of the appeal.

Contesting the $28,628 subject improvement assessment as inequitable, the appellant requests PTAB reduce the assessment rate to $5.58 per improvement square foot instead. To show the subject assessment's nonuniformity, the appellant proposed five class 2-11 properties within .70 miles of the subject as equity comparables. These suggested comparators each had at least one fireplace, two or three bathrooms, and a full basement. The appellant's selections also ranged between 96 and 107 years in building age; 2,442 and 3,188 in living square footage; and $4.96 and $5.94 per improvement square foot in assessment.

The board of review responded that the subject improvement was fairly assessed at $28,625, or $10.65 per living square foot in its “Notes on Appeal.”<sup>1</sup> In defense of the $38,003 total subject assessment, the county board of review introduced into evidence four two-story buildings within a quarter mile of the subject with improvement assessments from $10.67 to $11.95 per square foot. The board of review’s preferred comparables all featured two bathrooms, a slab foundation or full basement, and a two-car garage (except submission #3, which had no garage). These properties ranged from 103 to 107 years in building age and 2,144 to 2,570 square feet in improvement area.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires that real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation, however; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When the ground for appeal is unequal treatment in the assessment, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment should consist of assessment documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties showing the compelling proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables relative to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant fell short of satisfying this burden of proof.

As the properties most similar to the subject improvement size, board of review comparables #1 and #2 and appellant comparable #1 circumscribe the range of equitable subject assessments. While each of these comparables lacked some of the subject’s livable square footage and one full bathroom, these comparables generally matched the subject’s location and garage space. Given these comparables, the subject would be equitably assessed anywhere between $4.96 and $10.75 per improvement square foot. Because the subject’s $10.65 per living square foot improvement assessment falls within this range, PTAB finds the appellant did not produce the requisite clear and convincing evidence to justify a reduction in the subject assessment.

<sup>1</sup> PTAB observes that in its “Notes on Appeal,” the county board of review referenced its 2023 decision from which the appellant petitions. PTAB accordingly adopts the total assessment value reflected in that decision, minor discrepancies in the “Notes on Appeal” notwithstanding.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
