

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Wieslaw and Edyta Maciuszek
DOCKET NO.: 22-44116.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 03-22-409-010-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Wieslaw and Edyta Maciuszek, the appellants, by attorney Jeremy Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld & Associates, LLC in Northbrook; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $11,200
IMPR.: $49,672
TOTAL: $60,872

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellants timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 3,109 square feet, two-story frame structure situated on a 28,000 square feet lot in Prospect Heights, Wheeling Township, Cook County. The four-year-old, class 2-78 residence under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance featured 2.5 bathrooms, air conditioning, a fireplace, and a full basement. The subject last sold in September 2020 for $545,000.

The appellants based the petition on assessment inequity, contending that the assessment should be lowered to $13.97 per improvement square foot. As evidence of nonuniformity, the appellants selected four class 2-78 residences within 1.2 miles of the subject. These suggested comparables featured a three-car garage, 2.5 or 3.5 bathrooms, and a full basement. These potential comparators were between 22 and 31 years in building age; between 3,179 and 3,550 square feet in improvement size; and $12.51 to $14.63 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $49,672, or $15.98 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $60,872 total subject assessment, the county board of review proposed four two-story improvements in the subject’s subarea as equity comparables. The board of review’s preferred comparators all featured a full basement, a three- or four-car garage, and 2.5 to 4.5 bathrooms. These properties were seven to 16 years in building age; 3,235 or 3,524 square feet in living area; and $16.41 to $20.64 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayers contend assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When the ground for appeal is unequal treatment in the assessment, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment should consist of assessment documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties of compelling proximity to, and with a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellants fell short of satisfying this burden of proof.

Of the properties in evidence, board of review comparable #4 and appellant comparables #2 and #4 most resembled the subject improvement and therefore circumscribe the range of equitable subject assessments. Each of these comparators boasted more living space than the subject and an additional amenity to boot. For instance, board of review comparable #4 featured an extra full bathroom and larger garage, while appellant comparables #2 and #4 also had larger garages than the subject, though appellant comparable #4 lacked the subject’s fireplace. Given this record, the subject improvement would be equitably assessed from $14.37 to $16.41 per living square foot. Because the subject assessment of $15.98 per improvement square foot is within the range of equitable assessments, PTAB concludes the appellants did not demonstrate inequitable subject assessment by clear and convincing evidence and an assessment reduction is accordingly not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
