

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Jacques Hoffmann
DOCKET NO.: 22-44651.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-33-410-045-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Jacques Hoffmann, the appellant, by attorney Dora Cornelio, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd., in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $23,958
IMPR.: $64,042
TOTAL: $88,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 3,958 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 70 years old. Features of the home include a full basement finished with a recreation room, central air conditioning, two fireplaces, and a two-car garage. The property has a 14,520 square foot site and is located in Lincolnwood, Niles Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-06 two-story dwellings of masonry, or frame and masonry exterior construction which range in age from 67 to 81 years old. The dwellings range in size from 3,947 to 4,343 square feet of living area. Each comparable has a full basement, three of which have finished area, and four comparables have central air conditioning. Each comparable has from 1 to 3 fireplaces and each comparable has a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $49,943 to $56,576 or from $11.69 to $13.57 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $51,572 or $13.03 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $88,000. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $64,042 or $16.18 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code and ¼ of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-06 two-story dwellings of masonry, or frame and masonry exterior construction which are 66 to 81 years old. The dwellings range in size from 4,288 to 4,520 square feet of living area. The comparables have full or partial basements, with finished area, central air conditioning, two or three fireplaces, and a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $64,210 to $94,479 or from $14.55 to $20.90 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of eight suggested equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has given reduced weight to appellant's comparable #1 and board of review comparable #1, due to differences in age (81) when compared to the subject 70-year-old dwelling. The Board has given reduced weight to appellant's comparable #5 and board of review comparable #3, due to lack of air conditioning and difference in dwelling size, respectively, when compared to the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity in the record consists of appellant's comparables #2, #3 and #4 along with board of review comparable #2, which range in age from 66 to 72 years old, range in dwelling size from 4,071 to 4,343 square feet of living area, have full basements, two of which have finished area, central air conditioning, one or two fireplaces, and a two-car garage. Adjustments to the comparables are necessary for differences in age, dwelling size, lack of finished basement, and fireplace count when compared to the subject in order to make the comparables more similar to the subject. The best comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $54,487 to $77,524 or from $12.93 to $18.08 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $64,042 or $16.18 per square foot of living area which is within the range of the best comparables both in terms of overall improvement assessment and on a per-square-foot of living area basis.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
