

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: David Blum
DOCKET NO.: 22-45903.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 20-14-207-027-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are David Blum, the appellant(s), by attorney Max E. Callahan, of Siegel & Callahan, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $26,400
IMPR.: $28,600
TOTAL: $55,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling with 1,806 square feet of living area of frame construction. The dwelling is 119 years old. Features of the home include a full basement and a two-car garage. The property has a 5,280 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Hyde Park Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-05 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellants contend overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellants submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $460,000 as of January 1, 2021. The appraisal was prepared by Gregory Nold, a certified general real estate appraiser, for ad valorem tax purposes. The appraisal is based upon an inspection of the subject property.

Furthermore, the subject property was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year under Docket Number 2021-44444.001-R-1. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the total assessment of the subject property to $55,000 on an agreement of the parties and the submitted evidence. The tax years 2021 and 2022 are within the same general assessment period and the appellant disclosed that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $66,251. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $662,510 or $366.84 per square foot of living area, including land, when using the Cook County Real Estate Classification Ordinance level of assessment for class 2 property of 10%.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on two class 2-05 comparable sales properties with varying degrees of similarities to the subject. The sales occurred in 2020 and 2022. Based on this evidence the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

In written rebuttal, the appellant argued that appellant appraisal written by a licensed professional appraiser who personally inspected the subject property, reviewed the property's history and used similar properties in the sales comparison approach, providing sufficient detail for each, while providing necessary adjustments for location, size, age, land-to-building ratio, construction materials and other relevant factors. differentiated the board of review's comparable properties from the subject while the Board of Review submitted raw, unadjusted assessment and sales data on two sales comparable properties which has historically been unpersuasive in this venue.

Conclusion of Law

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the assessment as established by the Board for the 2021 tax year should be carried forward to the tax year at issue subject only to equalization as provided by section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code.

Section 16 185 of the Property Tax Code provides, in relevant part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

35 ILCS 200/16-185. Additionally, "Standard of proof. Unless otherwise provided by law or stated in the agency's rules, the standard of proof in any contested case hearing conducted under this Act by an agency shall be the preponderance of the evidence.” 5 ILCS 100/10-15. The Board takes official notice that it rendered a decision lowering the subject’s assessment for tax year 2021 (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.90(i)), and that tax year 2021 and the instant tax year of 2022 are in the same general assessment period for Hyde Park Township. The Board further finds that the subject is owner-occupied based on the appellant’s response to Section 1b of the residential appeal form, which states that the subject is owner-occupied. The record contains no evidence indicating that the subject sold in an arm’s-length transaction subsequent to the Board’s decision for the 2021 tax year, or that the Board’s decision for the 2021 tax year was reversed or modified upon review. For these reasons, the Board finds by a preponderance of the evidence, that the subject’s assessment should be carried forward to the 2022 tax year, pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code, to reflect the Board’s decision for the 2021 tax year, plus the application of an equalization factor, if any.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
