

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Qing Zhang
DOCKET NO.: 22-46182.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-22-408-029-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Qing Zhang, the appellant, by attorney Dora Cornelio, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd., in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $5,479
IMPR.: $29,675
TOTAL: $35,154

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 1,498 square feet of living area and which is approximately 74 years old. Features include a full basement,¹ central air conditioning, one fireplace, and a one-car garage. The property has a 4,059 square foot site and is located in Skokie, Niles Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-05 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-05 two-story dwellings of frame, masonry, or frame and masonry exterior construction which range in age from 69 to 107 years old. The dwellings range in size from 1,540 to 1,616 square feet of living area. Four comparables have full basements and comparable #5 has a concrete slab foundation. Three homes have central air conditioning and a 1.5-car or a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $19,311 to $26,563 or from $12.52 to $16.70 per square foot of living area.

Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $24,267 or $16.20 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal." The appellant submitted a copy of the final decision disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $35,154. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $29,675 or $19.81 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject and two of which are in the subarea or ¼ of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-05 two-story dwellings of masonry, or frame and masonry exterior construction which are 71 to 79 years old. The dwellings range in size from 1,052 to 1,536 square feet of living area. The comparables have full or partial basements. Three comparables have central air conditioning and comparable #1 has a fireplace. Each comparable has from a one-car to a two-car garage. Comparable #1 has "other improvements" that are not further identified on the record. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $24,092 to $35,188 or from $22.85 to $24.58 per square foot of living area.

Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of nine suggested equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board which are similar to the subject in neighborhood code and classification. The Board has given reduced weight to appellant's comparables #1 and #2, due to differences in age as these homes are 99 and 107 years old whereas the subject is 74 years old. The Board has given reduced weight to appellant's comparable #5, due to the difference in foundation type of concrete slab as opposed to the subject's full basement. The Board has given reduced weight to board of review comparables #2 and #4, due to significant differences of approximately 29% in dwelling size when compared to the subject dwelling of 1,498 square feet.

The Board finds the best equity comparables in the record are the appellant's comparables #3 and #4 along with board of review comparables #1 and #3, which are relatively similar to the subject in age, dwelling size ranging from 1,380 to 1,600 square feet of living area, central air conditioning, and foundation type. Each of these best comparables necessitate adjustments to account for differences, including, but not limited to, garage capacity when compared to the subject garage in order to make them more equivalent to the subject. The best comparables in the record have improvement assessments ranging from $24,953 to $35,188 or from $16.20 to $22.91 per square foot of living area. The subject has an improvement assessment of $29,675 or $19.81 per square foot of living area which is within the range of the best comparables in the record both in terms of overall improvement assessment and on a per-square-foot of living area basis.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject to make the comparables more similar to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
