

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Javid Wasson
DOCKET NO.: 22-48253.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-21-129-044-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Javid Wasson, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,312
IMPR.: $24,624
TOTAL: $31,936

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 1,238 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 66 years old. Features include a full basement, central air conditioning, and a 2-car garage. The property has a 5,625 square foot site and is located in Skokie, Niles Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity regarding the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood and from 0.23 to 0.62 of a mile from the subject property. The comparables are improved with 1-story or 1.5-story, class 2-03 homes of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,193 to 1,451 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 61 to 74 years old. Each comparable has a full or partial basement and one or two fireplaces. Three comparables each have central air conditioning. Four comparables each have from a 1.5-car to a 2.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $18,000 to $25,889 or from $15.09 to $17.93 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal." The appellant submitted the board of review final decision disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $31,936. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $24,624 or $19.89 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood, as well as on the same block and along the street as the subject property. The comparables are improved with 1-story, class 2-03 of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,207 to 1,254 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 65 to 68 years old. Each comparable has a full or partial basement, central air conditioning, and a 1-car or a 2-car garage. One comparable has one fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $24,788 to $28,500 or from $20.52 to $22.73 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the subject's assessment be sustained.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The record contains nine equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables which are located less proximate to the subject than the board of review comparables, as well as three of these comparables presenting additional differences when compared to the subject in design, dwelling size, central air conditioning, and/or garage amenity.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review comparables which are overall more similar to the subject in location, design/class, age, and dwelling size with varying degrees of similarity in other features. The best comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $24,788 to $28,500 or from $20.52 to $22.73 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $24,624 or $19.89 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
