

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Jacqueline Baumhardt
DOCKET NO.: 22-49497.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 03-02-104-003-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Jacqueline Baumhardt, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,307
IMPR.: $24,692
TOTAL: $31,999

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 1,997 square feet, two-story frame structure situated on a 9,743 square feet parcel in Wheeling of Wheeling Township, Cook County comprises the subject property. The 43-year-old, class 2-07 residence under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance featured 2.5 bathrooms, air conditioning, a two-car garage, and a partial basement.

The appellant based the petition on evidence of assessment inequity and requested the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) reduce the assessment to $10.05 per improvement square foot. To bolster the inequity argument, the appellant placed into evidence five class 2-07 properties within 1.69 miles of the subject as comparators for assessment equity. These suggested comparables included 1.5 to three bathrooms, one fireplace, and no garage to a 2.5-car garage. The appellant's selections spanned 28 to 59 years in building age; 1,672 to 1,962 square feet in improvement area; and $7.34 to $12.02 per square foot in improvement assessment.

The board of review maintained that the subject improvement assessment of $24,692, or $12.36 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.”<sup>1</sup> In defense of the $31,999 total subject assessment, the county board of review proposed three two-story frame improvements within a quarter mile of the subject as assessment comparables. The county board of review’s preferred comparators included air conditioning, 2.5 bathrooms, and a two-car garage. These properties were 31 or 41 years in building age; 1,780 or 1,997 in living square footage; and $12.99 to $14.51 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment is the basis of a property tax appeal, the appellant must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should comprise documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties with compelling proximity to, and a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof.

In this record, board of review comparables #1 through #3 and appellant comparable #2 most resembled the subject improvement and thereby provide the best evidence of assessment equity for the subject. Board of review comparable #1 identically matched most of the subject’s attributes, (including improvement square footage), except basement quality, in which the comparator was inferior to the subject. Meanwhile, board of review comparables #2 and #3 contained less living space than the subject, though board of review comparable #2 somewhat mitigated the difference with a fireplace. Similarly, appellant comparable #2 was inferior to the subject because it featured less livable area, though it did have a fireplace and newer building. As such, an improvement assessment between $9.72 and $14.51 per living square foot would be equitable for the subject. Given the $12.36 per improvement square foot assessment for the subject, PTAB finds the appellant did not show assessment inequity by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction in the assessment is not justified.

<sup>1</sup> PTAB observes that in its “Notes on Appeal,” the county board of review referenced the 2023 decision from which the appellant petitions. PTAB accordingly adopts the total assessment value reflected in that decision for the 2022 tax year, minor discrepancies in the “Notes on Appeal” notwithstanding.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
