

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Timothy Jordan
DOCKET NO.: 22-49736.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 03-30-303-002-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Timothy Jordan, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $6,450
IMPR.: $47,550
TOTAL: $54,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 2,583 square feet, two-story frame structure on a 6,450 square feet parcel in Arlington Heights, Wheeling Township, Cook County comprises the subject property. The 22-year-old building, a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance, contained 2.5 bathrooms, air conditioning, a two-car garage, and a full basement. The subject last sold in February 2016 for $469,000.

Contending assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal, the appellant argues the subject improvement assessment should be reduced to $16.37 per improvement square foot to be on par with those of similar properties. As evidence, the appellant offered five class 2-78 properties within 1.23 miles of the subject. The appellant's suggested comparables each featured a two-car garage, 2.5 bathrooms, and air conditioning. These potential comparators varied from 34 to 36 years in building age; from 2,636 to 2,865 square feet in improvement size; and from $15.83 to $16.64 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $47,550, or $18.41 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $54,000 total subject assessment, the county board of review nominated four buildings in the subject’s subarea as equity comparables. The board of review’s preferred comparators all featured a full basement, a two-car garage, and 2.5 bathrooms. These properties were 14 to 22 years in building age; 2,714 to 2,802 square feet in living area; and $19.13 to $21.15 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When the ground for appeal is unequal treatment in the assessment, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment should consist of assessment documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties with compelling proximity to, and a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant fell short of satisfying this burden of proof.

In this record, board of review comparable #4 and appellant comparables #1 and #3 constitute the best evidence of assessment equity. Board of review comparable #4 featured more living space than the subject and otherwise matched the subject’s amenities. Similarly, both appellant comparables #1 and #3 featured more living area and otherwise matched attributes of the subject improvement. Further, no properties submitted into evidence were more proximal to the subject than the others. As such, an equitable improvement assessment for the subject would fall between $15.83 and $21.15 per living square foot. Because the subject assessment of $18.41 per improvement square foot lands within this range, PTAB concludes the appellant did not demonstrate inequitable assessment by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction commensurate with the appellant’s request is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
