

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Cindy Cooke
DOCKET NO.: 22-50767.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 03-16-309-014-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Cindy Cooke, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $11,085
IMPR.: $34,020
TOTAL: $45,105

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2,617 square feet building of frame-and-masonry construction situated on a 10,077 square feet parcel in Arlington Heights, Wheeling Township, Cook County. The 56-year-old, class 2-78 residence under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance contained 2.5 bathrooms, a partial basement, central air conditioning, and a two-car garage. The subject last sold in October 2000 for $300,000.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the petition and requests the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) reduce the assessment to $11.25 per improvement square foot. To show that the subject assessment is not uniform, the appellant presented five class 2-78 properties within .86 miles of the subject as equity comparables. These suggested comparators each had a one- or two-car garage, two or 2.5 bathrooms, and a full or partial basement. The appellant's selections also ranged between 48 and 59 years in building age; 2,276 and 2,991 in living square footage; and $10.98 and $11.44 per improvement square foot in assessment.

The board of review responded that the subject improvement was fairly assessed at $34,020, or $13.00 per living square foot in its “Notes on Appeal.”¹ In defense of the $45,105 total subject assessment, the county board of review volunteered four two-story residences within a quarter mile of the subject as evidence of assessment uniformity. The board of review’s preferred comparables all featured two to 3.5 bathrooms, a full or partial basement, and a two-car garage. These properties ranged from 56 to 59 years in building age; 2,142 to 2,899 square feet in improvement area; and $13.40 to $14.87 per improvement square foot in assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires that real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation, however; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When a property tax appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment, the appellant must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation for the year in question of demonstrably similar properties of compelling proximity to, and with a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not satisfy this burden of proof.

As the properties in evidence most similar to the subject, board of review comparable #1 and appellant comparables #2 and #4 constitute the best evidence of assessment equity in this record. Board of review comparable #1 contained slightly less living area than the subject but compensated for the difference with a better basement. Similarly, appellant comparable #4 had a smaller improvement but otherwise matched the subject’s attributes. By contrast, appellant comparable #2 featured more living square footage and a newer building than the subject. Given this record, the subject would be equitably assessed anywhere between $11.15 and $14.87 per improvement square foot. Because the subject’s $13.00 per living square foot improvement assessment is on par with the comparables’ assessments, PTAB finds the appellant did not produce the requisite clear and convincing evidence to justify a reduction in the subject assessment.

¹ PTAB observes that in its “Notes on Appeal,” the county board of review referenced the 2023 decision from which the appellant petitions. PTAB accordingly adopts the 2022 assessment values reflected in that decision, minor discrepancies in the “Notes on Appeal” notwithstanding.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
