

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Jane Hletko
DOCKET NO.: 22-52455.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-10-223-033-1550

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Jane Hletko, the appellant, by attorney Edwin M. Wittenstein, of Worssek & Vihon LLP in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $1,046
IMPR.: $73,954
TOTAL: $75,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a residential condominium unit with 2,202 square feet of living area. The dwelling is located within a 58-unit condominium building that is 16-20 years old. The subject has a 0.3630% interest in the common elements of the condominium. The property has a 16,464 square foot site and is located in Chicago, North Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of this argument the appellant submitted evidence disclosing the subject property was purchased on June 18, 2021 for a price of $750,000. The appellant completed Section IV of the appeal petition disclosing the parties to the sale were not related, the property sold using a realtor and was advertised for sale on the Multiple Listing Service for 82 days, and the sale was not due to foreclosure or by contract for deed. In support of the sale, the appellant submitted a copy of a settlement statement disclosing payment of realtors' commissions and indicating the property was being sold by the seller as part of an exchange. The appellant also submitted a listing sheet disclosing the property was listed on March 1, 2021 and was under contract on May 21, 2021.

Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to $67,500 which would reflect a market value of $675,000.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $76,491. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $764,910, land included, when using the level of assessment for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted a sales analysis based on 139 sales within the subject's condominium, not including the sale of the subject reported by the appellant. Two of these sales sold in January and February 2021 for prices of $735,000 and $748,792 and have percentage interests of 0.3590% and 0.3660%, respectively. The 139 sales presented in the sales analysis have an aggregate sale price of $46,734,546 and a combined 21.6650% interest in the common elements of the condominium. The board of review computed a value for the condominium of $215,714,498 and a value for the subject of $783,044 based on its 0.3630% interest. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the subject's assessment be sustained.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The appellant presented evidence of a June 2021 sale of the subject and the board of review presented a sales analysis based on sales within the subject's condominium. The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject property in June 2021 for a price of $750,000. The appellant provided evidence demonstrating the sale had the elements of an arm's length transaction. The appellant completed Section IV of the appeal petition disclosing the parties to the transaction were not related, the property was sold using a realtor, the property had been advertised on the open market with the Multiple Listing Service, and it had been on the market for 82 days. In further support of the transaction the appellant submitted a copy of the settlement statement.

The Board finds the board of review did not present any evidence to challenge the arm's length nature of the transaction or to refute the contention that the purchase price was reflective of market value. The two sales in the board of review's sales analysis that are the most similar to the subject in percentage interest sold in 2021 for prices of $735,000 and $748,792, which supports the subject's sale as reflective of market value.

The Board finds the purchase price is below the market value reflected by the assessment. Based on this record the Board finds the subject property had a market value of $750,000 as of January 1, 2022. Since market value has been determined the level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10% shall apply. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(c)(2).

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
