

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Korathu Thomas
DOCKET NO.: 22-52908.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 04-08-408-004-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Korathu Thomas, the appellant, by attorney Dora Cornelio, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $47,700
IMPR.: $73,300
TOTAL: $121,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 4,540 square feet, two-story masonry building perched on a 31,800 square feet lot in Northbrook, Northfield Township, Cook County. The 13-year-old, class 2-08 structure contained three bathrooms, a fireplace, central air conditioning, a full basement, and a three-car garage.

Contesting the equity of the $73,300 subject improvement assessment, the appellant contends the rate should be lowered to $13.26 per improvement square foot to remain on par with those of similar properties. To this end, the appellant placed into evidence five class 2-08 properties in the subject's neighborhood with improvement assessments between $12.51 and $14.34 per living square foot. The appellant's suggested comparables featured air conditioning, a fireplace, a three- or 3.5-car garage, and a full basement. These potential comparators also varied from 24 to 34 years in building age and from 4,238 to 4,771 square feet in improvement size.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $73,300, or $16.15 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Board of Review Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $121,000 total subject assessment, the county board of review nominated four two-story buildings in the subject’s subarea as assessment benchmarks. The board of review’s preferred comparators all featured air conditioning, a full basement, one or two fireplaces, and 3.5 or 5.5 bathrooms. These properties were also between 13 and 34 years in building age; between 4,087 and 4,842 square feet in living area; and between $16.26 and $20.98 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When the ground for appeal is unequal treatment in the assessment, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for the conviction of a crime. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment should consist of assessment documentation for the year in question of at least three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity, and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not satisfy this burden of proof.

As the properties most similar to the subject improvement, board of review comparable #2 and appellant comparables #2 and #4 constitute the best evidence of assessment equity in this record. Board of review comparable #2 had slightly less living and garage space, but otherwise closely matched the subject improvement’s attributes. Appellant comparable #2 similarly contained slightly less livable area and an older building, leaving this property at the low end of the range of equitable assessments. Conversely, appellant comparable #4’s improvement featured more living area than the subject’s, which compensated for the comparable being over twice the age of the subject improvement. Based on these comparators, the subject improvement would be equitably assessed from $12.84 to $20.98 per living square foot. Because the $16.15 per square foot assessment for the subject improvement lands within this range, PTAB concludes the appellant did not demonstrate nonuniform assessment by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction commensurate with the appellant’s request is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
