

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Margaret Hamil
DOCKET NO.: 22-53029.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-33-420-051-1003

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Margaret Hamil, the appellant, by attorney Scott Shudnow, of Shudnow & Shudnow, Ltd., in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $12,647
IMPR.: $25,103
TOTAL: $37,750

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a single-family owner-occupied residence located in North Chicago Township, Cook County.

The appellant contends the subject property's assessment is not reflective of market value. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $377,500 as of January 1, 2021.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment of $41,865 was disclosed.

By postmark date of May 30, 2025, the appellant filed a Motion to Enforce the Rollover Statute as provided by Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) with Proof of Service to the Cook County Board of Review. The motion asserts the decision established by the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2021 tax year should be carried forward to the 2022 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). The appellant argued the subject property is an owner-occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year under Docket Number 21-45807.001-R-1. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $37,750 based on the evidence in the record. The appellant asserted that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence<sup>1</sup>, and the 2021 and 2022 tax years are within the same general assessment period for North Chicago Township.

The board of review did not file a response to the Motion to Enforce Rollover Statute by the established deadline of June 20, 2025. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.64(d).

Conclusion of Law

The appellant filed a Motion to Enforce the Rollover Statute pursuant to Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). The Property Tax Appeal Board Hereby Grants the Motion to the Enforce the Rollover Statute. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the assessment as established by the Board for the 2021 tax year shall be carried forward to the 2022 tax year subject only to equalization as provided by section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) states in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's assessment for the 2021 tax year. The record further indicates that the subject property is an owner-occupied dwelling and that 2021 and 2022 tax years are within the same general assessment period. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction after the Board's decision or that the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board has been reversed or modified upon review. For these reasons, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the assessment as established in the Board's prior year's decision plus the application of an equalization factor, if any.

<sup>1</sup> A general affidavit was submitted by the owner of the subject property, Margaret Hamil. After being duly sworn, Ms. Hamil stated that as of January 1, 2021, the subject property was occupied as her primary residence and remains owner-occupied as of the date of the affidavit.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
