

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Alan Patzik
DOCKET NO.: 22-53112.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 04-16-303-061-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Alan Patzik, the appellant, by attorney Abby L. Strauss, of Schiller Law P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $42,075
IMPR.: $58,925
TOTAL: $101,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 4,071 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 39 years old. Features of the home include a full basement, central air conditioning, 2 fireplaces and a 3.5-car garage. The property has a 28,050 square foot site and is located in Northbrook, Northfield Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-08 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood and from 1.43 to 5.06 miles from the subject property. According to the property index numbers (PINs), the comparables are located within a different subarea than the subject property. The comparables consist of class 2-08,

2-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 3,970 to 4,577 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 1 to 33 years old. Each comparable has a partial or a full basement, central air conditioning, 1 or 2 fireplaces and a 3-car or a 4-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $49,000 to $56,800 or from $10.71 to $12.86 per square foot of living area. The appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $101,000. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $58,925 or $14.47 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three comparables¹ located within the same assessment neighborhood and subarea, with PINs beginning in #04-16, as the subject. The comparables consist of 2-story, class 2-08 dwellings of frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 3,924 to 4,113 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 47 to 56 years old. Each comparable has a partial or full basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $66,003 to $68,823 or from $16.52 to $16.82 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

In written rebuttal, the appellant compared the different construction types of the board of review comparables to the subject property.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted seven comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables which are located from 1.43 to 5.06 miles from the subject, and according to their PINs are located within a different subarea than the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review's comparables which are located within the same assessment neighborhood and subarea as the subject. These comparables are relatively similar to the subject in dwelling size but have varying degrees of similarity to the subject in other features, such as their older ages and smaller garage capacity. These three comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $66,003 to $68,823 or from $16.52 to $16.82 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of ¹ The board of review comparable #4 is the same property as the board of review comparable #1.

$58,925 or $14.47 per square foot of living area falls below the best comparables in the record. After considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
