

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Henry Lin
DOCKET NO.: 22-54380.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 04-11-302-008-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Henry Lin, the appellant, by attorney Dora Cornelio, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $51,923
IMPR.: $79,076
TOTAL: $130,999

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 6,265 square feet of living area. The home is approximately 62 years old. Features include a basement, central air conditioning, two fireplaces, and a 3-car garage. The board of review disclosed the subject has other improvements but disclosed no further details. The property has a 64,904 square foot site and is located in Northbrook, Northfield Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-04 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood code. The comparables are reported to be improved with 1-story or 1.5-story, class 2-04 dwellings of frame, masonry, or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 5,037 to 8,202 square feet of living area. The homes range in age from 30 to 85 years old. Four comparables each have a full basement, two of which have finished area, and one comparable has a slab foundation. Each comparable has central air conditioning, from two to four fireplaces, and from a 2-car to a 4-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $56,500 to $80,956 or from $7.23 to $11.91 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the improvement assessment be reduced.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal." The appellant's submission included a copy of the "Cook County Board of Review" final decision for the 2022 tax year disclosing the subject has a total assessment of $130,999. The subject has an improvement assessment of $79,076 or $12.62 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood code. The comparables are improved with 1-story or 1.5-story, class 2-04 dwellings of masonry or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 5,439 to 6,657 square feet of living area. The homes range in age from 33 to 56 years old. Each comparable has a partial basement, central air conditioning, two or four fireplaces, and a 3-car or a 4-car garage. Comparable #3 is reported to have other improvements which were not detailed. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $89,198 to $110,182 or from $15.66 to $16.55 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested that the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted eight suggested equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables #1, #2, #4, and #5 as well as board of review comparables #1 and #2 due to substantial differences from the subject in age and/or dwelling size. Further, four of these comparables have a dissimilar 1.5-story design when compared to the subject's 1-story design and one comparable lacks a basement foundation, which is a feature of the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparable #3 and board of review comparable #3 which are more similar to the subject in design/class, age, dwelling size, and many features. The two best comparables have improvement assessments of $67,875 and $89,198 or $10.71 and $16.40 per square foot of living area, respectively. The subject's improvement assessment of $79,076 or $12.62 is bracketed by the two best comparables in this record. After considering adjustments to the two best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
