

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Guixing Hu
DOCKET NO.: 23-01955.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-29-201-007

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Guixing Hu, the appellant, by attorney Ronald Kingsley of Lake County Real Estate Tax Appeal, LLC in Hawthorn Woods; and the Lake County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Lake County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $49,711
IMPR.: $266,726
TOTAL: $316,437

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Lake County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of wood siding exterior construction with 3,411 square feet of living area.¹ The dwelling was constructed in 2006 and is approximately 17 years old. Features of the home include a basement with finished area, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a 660 square foot garage. The property has an approximately 10,125 square foot site and is located in Deerfield, West Deerfield Township, Lake County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on nine equity comparables that have the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject and are located within .27 of a mile from the subject property. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings ranging in size from 3,322 to 3,556 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 22 to 25 years old. The comparables each have a basement, two of which have finished area. Each comparable has central air conditioning, a fireplace and a garage ranging in size from 399 to 440 square feet of building area. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $221,056 to $247,258 or from $66.19 to $70.99 per square foot of living area.

Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $234,080 or $68.63 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $316,437. The subject has an improvement assessment of $266,726 or $78.20 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables that have the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property and are located within .65 of a mile from the subject property. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of brick or wood siding exterior construction ranging in size from 3,339 to 3,496 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 17 or 19 years old. Each comparable has a basement with finished area, central air conditioning, one or two fireplaces and a garage ranging in size from 420 to 736 square feet of building area. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $261,826 to $277,958 or from $77.97 to $79.51 per square foot of living area.

Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted twelve equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board has given less weight to the appellant's comparables #1, #2, #4, #5, #6, #8 and #9 due to their lack of basement finish, a feature of the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables #4 and #8, along with the three comparables submitted by the board of review comparable, which have basement finish, like the subject and are similar to the subject in location, dwelling size, design, age and some features. These five comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $241,813 to $277,958 or from $69.17 to $79.51 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $266,726 or $78.20 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in the record. Based on this record and after considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
