

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ketukumar Amin
DOCKET NO.: 23-20130.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 01-13-304-018-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ketukumar Amin, the appellant, by attorney Scott Shudnow, of Shudnow & Shudnow, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $28,326
IMPR.: $49,874
TOTAL: $78,200

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story Colonial style dwelling of frame and masonry exterior construction with 5,070 square feet of living area that is approximately 20 years old. Features of the home include a basement with finished area, central air conditioning, one fireplace and a 4-car garage. The property has an approximately 40,467 square foot site and is located in Inverness, Barrington Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-09 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $782,000 as of January 1, 2022. The appraisal was prepared by Garry Nusinow, a Certified General Real Estate Appraiser. The intended use of the appraisal was to provide a basis for the appeal of the subject's ad valorem property tax assessment.

In estimating the market value of the subject property, the appraiser developed the sales comparison approach to value selecting four comparables located from 0.52 to 0.89 of a mile from the subject property. The comparables have varying degrees of similarity to the subject in location, age, dwelling size and other features and sold from September 2020 to May 2022 for prices ranging from $710,000 to $830,000 or from $149.85 to $160.59 per square foot of living area, land included.

After adjusting comparable #4 for date of sale/time, the appraiser adjusted the comparables for differences with the subject arriving at adjusted prices ranging from $743,000 to $817,000 and an opinion of market value for the subject of $782,000. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's assessment be reduced to reflect the appraised value when applying the level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10%.

The appellant also revealed in the Residential Appeal petition that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $89,765. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $897,650 or $177.05 per square foot of living area, including land, when applying the level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10%. The notes on appeal also disclosed the 2022 tax year was the first year of the subject's triennial general assessment period and no equalization factor was applied in Barrington Township for tax year 2023.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four comparables located on the same block or within ¼ of a mile from the subject property. The comparables have varying degrees of similarity to the subject in location, age, dwelling size and other features and sold from March 2022 to November 2023 for prices ranging from $1,100,000 to $2,270,000 or from $215.90 to $338.91 per square foot of living area, land included. Based on this evidence, the board of review requests the subject's assessment be confirmed.

In rebuttal, the appellant submitted a brief asserting the appellant filed an appeal with this Board requesting a reduction of the subject's 2022 assessment and that the subject property qualifies for any reduction in the subject's 2022 assessment be carried over to this 2023 appeal pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code.

Pursuant to section 1910.90(i) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board, the Property Tax Appeal Board takes official notice that the subject property was the subject matter of an appeal before the Board for the 2022 tax year under Docket No. 22-20651.01-R-1. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.90(i)). In that appeal, the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the total assessment of the subject property to $78,200 based on the evidence submitted by the parties. Furthermore, the Board finds that the subject property for tax year 2023 is an owner-occupied residence, which was not refuted by the board of review.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales, or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds the total assessment as established by the Board for the 2022 tax year of $78,200 should be carried forward to the 2023 tax year subject only to equalization as provided by section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) states in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The Board finds the subject property was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2022 tax year under Docket No. 22-20651.001-R-1 in which a decision was issued based upon the evidence presented by the parties reducing the subject's total assessment to $78,200.<sup>1</sup> The record indicates the subject property is an owner-occupied dwelling and that 2022 and 2023 are within the same general assessment period. The record further indicates that no equalization factor was applied in Barrington Township for the 2023 tax year. Furthermore, there was no evidence the subject property recently sold establishing a different fair cash value. For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the assessment as established in the Board's prior year's decision.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
