

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Mary Helen Brady
DOCKET NO.: 23-20356.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-25-408-024-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Mary Helen Brady, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld & Associates, LLC in Northbrook; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds A Reduction in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $13,526
IMPR.: $39,932
TOTAL: $53,458

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 2,488 square feet, two-story structure of frame-and-masonry construction situated on a 12,296 square feet lot in Riverside of Riverside Township, Cook County constitutes the subject property. The 73-year-old, class 2-06 residence per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance included two bathrooms, central air conditioning, and a two-car garage.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the petition, arguing that the subject assessment must be lowered to $15.84 per improvement square foot to be equitable. To show the subject was not uniformly assessed, the appellant volunteered four class 2-06 improvements within .4 miles of the subject as assessment benchmarks. The appellant's proposed comparators featured a one- to 2.5-car garage, air conditioning, and a full or partial basement. These properties were 84 to 99 years in building age; 2,290 to 2,716 in living square footage; and $15.39 to $16.05 per improvement square foot in assessment.

The county board of review maintained in its “Notes on Appeal” that the subject improvement was fairly assessed at $43,474, or $17.47 per living square foot. In defense of the $56,999 total subject assessment, the board of review put forth three frame-and-masonry buildings on the subject’s block as equity comparables. The county board of review’s selections featured a full basement, 2.5 bathrooms, and a 1.5- or two-car garage. These improvements were 91 to 94 years in age; 1,956 to 2,280 square feet in area; and $18.28 to $19.92 per living square foot in assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires that real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation, however; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When a property tax appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment, appellants must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation for the year in question of demonstrably similar properties of compelling proximity to, and with a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant met this burden of proof.

In this record, the board of review submitted no property that was within 208 square feet, or over 8%, of the subject improvement’s living square footage, and only one included air conditioning like the subject. Meanwhile, the appellant’s properties differed from the subject improvement area by an average of 174 square feet. Given these properties, appellant comparables #1 through #3 help define the spectrum of equitable assessments for (because they best represent) the subject improvement. Appellant comparables #1 and #2 both featured more living space than the subject, while appellant comparable #3 featured less space and slightly more bathroom functionality and garage space than the subject. Because the subject’s $17.47 per improvement square foot assessment is higher than the $15.39 to $16.05 square foot range of these comparators, PTAB concludes the appellant showed assessment inequity by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction in the total subject assessment to $53,458 is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
