

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Dorothy Schroeder
DOCKET NO.: 23-20676.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-35-414-004-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Dorothy Schroeder, the appellant, by attorney Dora Cornelio, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $6,875
IMPR.: $46,768
TOTAL: $53,643

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 2,489 square feet, two-story masonry building perched on a 6,250 square feet parcel in Riverside of Riverside Township, Cook County comprises the subject property. The 84-year-old, class 2-06 residence per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance featured two bathrooms, two fireplaces, and a full basement.

The appellant pleads assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal, arguing that the subject improvement assessment must be reduced to $15.39 per living square foot. As evidence of subject assessment nonuniformity, the appellant presented five class 2-06 properties in the subject's neighborhood. These suggested comparables included two or three bathrooms, a full basement, and a one- to three-car garage. The appellant's selections spanned 72 to 101 years in building age; 2,334 to 2,716 square feet in improvement area; and $14.42 to $146.02 per square foot in improvement assessment.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $46,768, or $18.79 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $53,643 total subject assessment, the county board of review proposed four two-story improvements within a quarter mile of the subject as assessment comparables. The county board of review’s preferred comparators included 2.5 bathrooms, a full or partial basement, and a two- or three-car garage. These properties were 132 or 135 years in building age; 2,486 to 2,765 in living square footage; and $19.39 to $21.41 per square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment is the basis of a property tax appeal, appellants must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should comprise assessment documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties with compelling proximity to, and a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not surmount this burden of proof.

In this record, no property sufficiently approached the subject improvement’s characteristics to serve as an assessment equity comparator. The closest building in size to the subject was board of review comparable #1, but this property was significantly worse than the subject with its lack of air conditioning and smaller basement. Appellant comparable #2 also paled in comparison to the subject because it lacked the subject’s living area, air conditioning, fireplaces, and garage space. Because no property in evidence was sufficiently comparable to the subject, PTAB finds the appellant did not provide sufficiently clear and convincing evidence that the subject assessment was inequitable or that a reduction thereof is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
