

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Larry Musial
DOCKET NO.: 23-20914.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-25-411-036-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Larry Musial, the appellant, by attorney Anne E. Edelman-Larsen, of the Law Offices of Frank A. Edelman, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,650
IMPR.: $42,445
TOTAL: $50,095

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 2,134 square feet, one-story structure of frame-and-masonry construction on a 7,650 square feet parcel in Riverside of Riverside Township, Cook County comprises the subject property. The 85-year-old, class 2-05 residence per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance contained an attached one-car garage, 1.5 bathrooms, and a full basement.

The appellant pleads assessment inequity as the basis of the petition, arguing that the subject improvement assessment must be reduced to $14.12 per living square foot. As evidence of subject assessment nonuniformity, the appellant presented three class 2-05 properties in the subject's neighborhood. These suggested comparables each included one bathroom, a full basement, and air conditioning. The appellant's selections spanned 75 to 135 years in building age; 1,984 to 2,040 square feet in improvement area; and $15.85 to $19.07 per square foot in improvement assessment.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $42,445, or $19.89 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $50,095 total subject assessment, the county board of review proposed four frame-and-masonry improvements in the subject’s subarea as assessment comparables. The county board of review’s preferred comparators included 2.5 or 3.5 bathrooms, a full or partial basement, and a one- to two-car garage. These properties were 67 to 88 years in building age; 1,819 to 2,012 in living square footage; and $21.80 to $23.11 per square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment is the basis of a property tax appeal, appellants must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should comprise assessment documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties with compelling proximity to, and a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not surmount this burden of proof.

In this record, only board of review comparable #3 lacked air conditioning like the subject. Because board of review comparable #3 varied from the subject improvement size by 296 square feet, and none of the other properties in evidence approximated the subject’s characteristics, PTAB finds that none of the submitted improvements comparable to the subject. In other words, because the docket does not supply clear and convincing evidence that the subject was not uniformly assessed with like properties, a subject assessment reduction is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
