

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ghassan Abdallah
DOCKET NO.: 23-21613.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 27-17-314-007-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ghassan Abdallah, the appellant(s), by attorney Dora Cornelio, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $9,750
IMPR.: $64,117
TOTAL: $73,867

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry construction with 4,428 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately twenty-four years old. Features of the home include a partial basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a three-car garage. The property is in Orland Park, Orland Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables. The appellant comparables are all two-story and constructed of frame and masonry or masonry materials. They range in age from sixteen to thirty-three years older than the subject property. Four have full basements, one is built on a slab. They all have central air conditioning, a fireplace, two to four car garages and two to four bathrooms. They range in size from 4,200 to 4,805 square feet in living space; and in improved assessment from $36,000 to $37,000 or $7.65 to $8.81 in improved assessment per square foot. The record is silent as to the four appellant comparables distance to the subject property. On this evidence the appellant is asking for a reduction in total assessment to $46,900.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $73,867. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $64,117 or $14.48 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables. The appellant comparables are all two-story, constructed of frame and masonry or masonry materials. Two board comparables are the same age, one is five years and another nine years older than the subject property. They all have full basements, central air conditioning, at least one fireplace, four or five full bathrooms and three car garages. The board comparables ranged from 4,036 to 4,190 feet of living area; and in improvement assessment from $68,650 to $72,667 or $16.56 to $17.34. Geographically, the board comparables range from the same block to the same subarea. The board of review is asking for no change in total assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be board of review comparables one through four. These comparables were relatively close to the subject in age, size, features and proximity to the subject property. They had improvement assessments that ranged from $16.56 to $17.34 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $16.54 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
