

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Michael Helman
DOCKET NO.: 23-22539.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 27-32-209-004-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Michael Helman, the appellant(s), by attorney George J. Relias, of Relias Law Group, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $8,580
IMPR.: $33,820
TOTAL: $42,400

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 12,787 square foot parcel of land improved with a 22-year-old, one-story, masonry, single-family dwelling containing 3,798 square feet of building area. The property is located in Orland Park, Orland Township, Cook County and is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation and inequity as the bases of the appeal. In support of the market value argument, appellant submitted the settlement statement which disclosed the subject was purchased on September 25, 2020, for $424,000. The settlement statement listed commissions to a realtor. The petition discloses that the transfer was not between related parties, that the property was sold with the involvement of a realtor, the property was advertised for sale on the multiple listing, and that the property was not sold due to a foreclosure or for a contract for deed. In support of the equity argument, the appellant submitted three comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the subject's total assessment of $48,461 which reflects a market value of $484,610 using the Cook County Real Estate Classification Ordinance level of assessment for class 2 property of 10%.

In support of the current assessment, the board of review submitted four comparables. These comparables are described as one-story, masonry or frame and masonry, single-family dwellings. They range in age from 7 to 25 years and in size from 2,336 to 2,682 square feet of building area. They sold from October 2020 to May 2023 for prices ranging from $198.74 to $235.45 per square foot of building area. The board of review also listed the sale of the subject in October 2020 for $424,000.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject property in September 2020 for a price of $424,000. The appellant argued the sale of the subject with involvement of a realtor and the board of review did not show the sale was not at arm's-length. Moreover, the board of review included the sale of the subject for $424,000 in its evidence. The Board finds the subject's assessment reflects a market value at this sale price. Therefore, the Board finds the appellant did prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject was overvalued and a reduction to that requested by the appellant is warranted. After this reduction, the Board finds the subject is equitably assessed.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
