

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: YII-Dih Tsai
DOCKET NO.: 23-23187.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-12-302-034-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are YII-Dih Tsai, the appellant(s); and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 9,578
IMPR.: $ 34,644
TOTAL: $ 44,222

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) after receiving a decision from the Cook County Board of Review. The instant appeal challenges the assessment for tax year 2023. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of a one and one-half-story single-family dwelling of frame and masonry construction with 1,410 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 74 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, and a one-car garage. The property's site is 8,910 square feet, and it is located in River Forest Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on nine equity comparables.

The appellant also makes a contention of law in support of the appeal. The appellant argued that the Cook County Assessor issued a certificate of error for tax year 2023 which corrected the subject's improvement size from 1,514 to 1,410 square feet of living area; however, the appellant argued that the Assessor maintained the subject's improvement assessment, thereby increasing the subject's improvement assessment per square foot. In Section II of the appeal form, the appellant stated that the subject is owner-occupied. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to $44,221.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing that the total assessment for the subject is $46,999. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $37,421, or $26.54 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables, and four sale comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proven by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did meet this burden of proof, and that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's equity comparables #1, #2, #3, and #7. These equity comparables had improvement assessments ranging from $24.43 to $25.49 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $26.54 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant has proven, with clear and convincing evidence, that the subject is inequitably assessed, and that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted. As the Board has granted all the relief the appellant has requested under the appellant's equity argument, the Board finds it unnecessary to address the appellant's contention of law.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
