

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Mark Demange
DOCKET NO.: 23-24167.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 02-09-119-003-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Mark Demange, the appellant, by attorney Dora Cornelio, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $8,100
IMPR.: $35,084
TOTAL: $43,184

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with a two-story, single-family dwelling of masonry construction with 3,617 square feet of living area located in Palatine, Palatine Township, Cook County. The building is 28 years old. Features of the dwelling include an unfinished full basement, central air conditioning, a two-car garage, two full bathrooms, and a half bath. The subject is located on a 9,000 square foot site. It is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant asserts assessment equity as the basis for this appeal. In support of this contention, the appellant submitted information about five suggested comparable properties.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" in which it disclosed that the subject's assessment was $52,000. The subject has an improvement assessment of $43,900, or $12.14 per square foot of living area. In support of the assessment, the board of review submitted information about four suggested equity comparables.

Conclusion of Law

On March 17, 2026, this Board issued a final administrative decision in case number 22-35620.001-R-1 that reduced the subject property's assessment for 2022 from $52,000 to $43,184. This Board takes official notice of that final administrative decision. The reduced assessment that appellant received for the 2022 tax year because of the Board's decision in case number 22-35620.001-R-1 must remain in effect for the 2023 tax year under section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code, which states in relevant part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

35 ILCS 200/16-185. On March 17, 2026, the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a final administrative decision reducing the subject property's assessment for the 2022 tax year from $52,000 to $43,184. The record shows that the subject property is occupied by the owner. The 2022 and 2023 assessment years are within the same general assessment period for Palatine Township. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property was sold in an arm's length transaction after the Board's decision for the 2022 tax year. The record also contains no evidence that the Board's decision for the 2022 tax year has been reversed or modified upon review. Therefore, under section 16-185, the reduced assessment for 2022 must remain in effect for 2023. This means that the appellant is entitled to an assessment reduction from $52,000 to $43,184 for the 2023 tax year.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
