

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Dario Peguero
DOCKET NO.: 23-24251.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 06-07-304-022-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Dario Peguero, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $10,075
IMPR.: $15,925
TOTAL: $26,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 1,446 square feet, one-story building of frame and masonry construction on a 15,500 square feet parcel in Elgin, Hanover Township, Cook County comprises the subject property. The 50-year-old, class 2-03 residence per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance featured two bathrooms, air conditioning, a two-car garage, and a full basement. The subject last sold in June 1994 for $142,000. The appellant waived the right to a hearing on the appeal.

The appellant pleads assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal, arguing that the subject improvement assessment must be reduced to $7.38 per living square foot. As evidence of subject assessment nonuniformity, the appellant presented five class 2-03 properties within .85 miles of the subject. These suggested comparables included one to 2.5 bathrooms, a full basement to slab foundation, air conditioning except in properties #2 and #5, and a 1.5- or two-car garage. The appellant's improvements also spanned 61 to 68 years in building age; 1,503 to 1,680 square feet in area; and $7.04 to $7.67 per living square foot in assessment.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $15,925, or $11.01 per living square foot, was equitable in its "Notes on Appeal." In defense of the $26,000 total subject assessment, the county board of review proposed four one-story improvements within a quarter mile of the subject as assessment comparables. The county board of review's preferred comparators included 1.5 to two bathrooms, a full or crawl-space basement, and a two-car garage. These properties were 45 to 50 years in building age; 1,375 to 1,435 in living square footage; and $12.26 to $13.71 per square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes "be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law." Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority's assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment is the basis of a property tax appeal, appellants must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should comprise assessment documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties with compelling proximity to, and a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not surmount this burden of proof.

In this record, board of review comparables #1, #2, and #4 most resembled the subject property and therefore circumscribe the range of equitable assessments for the subject improvement. Both board of review comparables #1 and #4 were marginally smaller than the subject improvement, with board of review comparable #1 lacking the subject's bathroom utility and comparator #4 containing an inferior basement relative to the subject. Meanwhile, board of review comparable #2 had less bathroom functionality and living square footage than the subject. Each of these comparables were more similar to the subject in size and location than any of the appellant comparables. Given these comparators, the subject improvement would be equitably assessed from $12.26 to $13.71 per living square foot. Because the subject's $11.01 per improvement square foot assessment is below those of the comparators, PTAB finds the appellant did not provide sufficiently clear and convincing evidence that the subject assessment was inequitable or that a reduction thereof is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
