

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Philip Cline
DOCKET NO.: 23-24284.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 06-36-120-033-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Philip Cline, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,888
IMPR: $22,111
TOTAL: $26,999

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1,551 square feet, one-story frame building on a 9,775 square feet lot in Hanover Park, Hanover Township, Cook County. The 50-year-old, class 2-03 residence under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance featured two bathrooms, no air conditioning, a two-car garage, and a full basement. The subject last sold in May 2016 for $200,000. The appellant waived the right to a hearing on the petition.

The appellant based the petition on assessment inequity, contending that the assessment should be lowered to $8.33 per improvement square foot. As evidence of nonuniformity, the appellant nominated five class 2-03 residences within .60 miles of the subject. These suggested comparables featured no garage to a four-car garage, one to two bathrooms, air conditioning in property #2 only, and a full or crawl-space basement. These potential comparator improvements were between 53 and 70 years in building age; 1,444 and 1,790 square feet in size; and $7.98 and $8.65 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $22,112, or $14.26 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $26,999 total subject assessment, the county board of review proposed four one-story improvements within a quarter mile of the subject as equity comparables. The board of review’s preferred comparators all featured a full basement to slab foundation, a one- or two-car garage, air conditioning in property #4 only, and 1.5 to 2.5 bathrooms. These properties were 49 to 53 years in building age; 1,499 to 1,526 square feet in living area; and $14.57 to $16.08 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When the ground for appeal is unequal treatment in the assessment, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment should consist of documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties of compelling proximity to, and with a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant fell short of satisfying this burden of proof.

In this record, board of review comparables #1 and #3 and appellant comparable #4 most resembled the subject improvement and therefore constitute the best evidence of assessment equity. Board of review comparable #1 partially compensated for its smaller improvement and basement with an extra half bathroom. Meanwhile, board of review comparable #3 lacked a marginal amount of the subject’s living square footage but otherwise matched the subject’s amenities. Finally, appellant comparable #4 had a smaller improvement, inferior basement, and no garage, placing it at the bottom of the comparators’ $8.49 to $16.05 per improvement square foot equitable range. Because the subject improvement’s $14.26 per living square foot assessment lands within this range, PTAB concludes the appellant did not demonstrate inequitable subject assessment by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction in the subject assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
