

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ricardo Camarena
DOCKET NO.: 23-24489.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-29-404-030-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ricardo Camarena, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,131
IMPR.: $16,868
TOTAL: $20,999

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 1,226 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 99 years old. The home features a full basement and a two-car garage. The property has a 3,843 square foot site and is located in Cicero, Cicero Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables that have the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject and are located within .53 of a mile from the subject property. The comparables are class 2-03 properties that are improved with one-story or one and one-half-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,350 to 1,458 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 97 to 109 years old. Each comparable has a full basement and one or two fireplaces. One comparable has central air conditioning and two comparables each have a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $11,602 to $14,478 or from $8.00 to $9.93 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $11,304 or $9.22 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $20,999. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $16,868 or $13.76 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables that have the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject and are located within the same block and along the same street as the subject property. The comparables are class 2-03 properties that are improved with one-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction. Each dwelling is 99 years old and contains 1,226 square feet of living area. The comparables each have a full basement and a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments of $16,868 and $17,868 or $13.76 and $14.57 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted seven comparable properties for the Board's consideration. The Board has given less weight to the appellant's comparables which differ from the subject in dwelling size and/or design. Additionally, the appellant's comparable #2 has central air conditioning, unlike the subject and the appellant's comparables #3 and #4 lack a garage, a feature of the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the three comparables submitted by the board of review, which are located within the same block and along the same street as the subject and are identical to the subject in dwelling size, design, age and features. The comparables have improvement assessments of $16,868 and $17,868 or $13.76 and $14.57 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $16,868 or $13.76 per square foot of living area is equivalent to two of the three best comparables in the record both in terms of overall improvement assessment and on a per square foot of living area basis. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
