

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Charles Ippolito
DOCKET NO.: 23-24933.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-26-125-005-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Charles Ippolito, the appellant, by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,067
IMPR.: $23,570
TOTAL: $30,637

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 1,384 square feet, multi-level brick structure on a 7,067 square feet lot in North Riverside of Riverside Township, Cook County constitutes the subject property. The 74-year-old, class 2-03 residence per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance included one bathroom, central air conditioning, and a two-car garage.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the petition, arguing that the subject assessment must be lowered to $14.77 per improvement square foot to be equitable. To show the subject was not uniformly assessed, the appellant volunteered seven class 2-03 improvements within .31 miles of the subject as assessment benchmarks. The appellant's proposed comparators featured one or two fireplaces, one to 2.5 bathrooms, and a full basement to a slab foundation. These properties were 67 to 75 years in building age; 1,112 to 1,696 in living square footage; and $12.49 to $16.47 per improvement square foot in assessment.

The county board of review maintained in its “Notes on Appeal” that the subject improvement was fairly assessed at $23,570, or $17.03 per living square foot. In defense of the $30,637 total subject assessment, the board of review proposed four masonry buildings in the subject’s subdivision as equity comparables. The county board of review’s selections featured a full basement, 1.5 or two bathrooms, and a 1.5- to 2.5-car garage. These improvements were 68 to 86 years in age; 1,056 to 1,332 square feet in area; and $19.71 to $24.62 per living square foot in assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires that real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation, however; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When a property tax appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment, appellants must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation for the year in question of demonstrably similar properties with compelling proximity to, and a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant fell short of satisfying this burden of proof.

Given their similarity to the subject improvement, particularly in air conditioning inclusion, the assessments of board of review comparable #2 and appellant comparables #1 and #3 constitute the range of equitable subject assessments. Board of review comparable #2 lacked some of the subject’s living space and fireplace, but mitigated the difference by upgrading the subject’s half bathroom to a full bathroom. By contrast, both appellant comparables #1 and #3 were remarkably inferior to the subject in terms of basement inclusion and garage space. Based on the properties in evidence, the subject improvement would be equitably assessed between $15.56 and $19.71 per living square foot. Because the subject’s $17.03 per improvement square foot assessment lands within this range, PTAB concludes the appellant failed to demonstrate assessment inequity by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction in the total subject assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
