

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Raul Pelayo
DOCKET NO.: 23-24936.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-26-112-011-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Raul Pelayo, the appellant, by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $6,300
IMPR.: $21,838
TOTAL: $28,138

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1,348 square feet, multi-level brick structure on a 6,300 square feet parcel in North Riverside of Riverside Township, Cook County. The 75-year-old, class 2-03 residence per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance featured two bathrooms, air conditioning, a one-car garage, and a full basement.

The appellant pleads assessment inequity as the basis of the petition, arguing that the subject improvement assessment should be reduced to $14.50 per living square foot. To show subject assessment nonuniformity, the appellant presented information on six class 2-03 properties within .23 miles of the subject property. These suggested comparables each included one or two fireplaces, no garage to a 2.5-car garage, and one to 2.5 bathrooms. The appellant's selections spanned 67 to 75 years in building age; 1,304 to 1,731 square feet in improvement area; and $13.91 to $15.40 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $21,838, or $16.20 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $28,138 total subject assessment, the county board of review introduced into evidence four masonry improvements in the subject’s subdivision as assessment comparables. The county board of review’s preferred comparators contained 1.5 to 2.5 bathrooms, air conditioning, and a full basement. These improvements were 65 or 72 years in building age; from 1,332 to 1,478 square feet in size; and $17.74 to $19.71 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment is the basis of a property tax appeal, appellants must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should comprise documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties of compelling proximity to, and with a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the assessment subject. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not overcome this burden of proof.

Because of their similarity to the subject in size and air conditioning inclusion, board of review comparables #2 and #3 and appellant comparable #3 provide the best evidence of assessment equity. Board of review comparable #2 was most similar to the subject improvement in that it merely substituted some of the subject’s living space and half bathroom for a larger garage. Meanwhile, board of review comparable #3 traded one of the subject’s full bathrooms for more living square footage. By contrast, appellant comparable #3 lacked some of the subject’s living area, the entire basement, and 1.5 bathrooms, placing it at the low end of the $14.52 to $19.71 per improvement square foot equitable range. Because the subject’s $16.20 per improvement square foot assessment is within the equitable range, PTAB finds the appellant did not prove assessment inequity by clear and convincing evidence or that a subject assessment reduction is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
